WHEN WE SHALL HAVE FOR SALE

350 HORSES

Most of them being of the Heavy Draught type, young and sound, and weighing from 1,450 to 1,800 pounds. For two of three weeks past we have set aside Monday next for a Lumber Horse sale, and our shippers have been buying accordingly. They adviseus that never before have they been able to ship such consignments of Heavy Draught Horses, young, sound and having both quality and size. Lumbermen who purchased their early loads through us know what we have had in our Stables before, and when we say that this week's will be better than ever, they will know what to expect, and will not be disappointed. Monday next will offer an excellent opportunity to those looking for Heavy Draught Horses to supply their needs and ship the same day. We hitch and try all horses for out-of-town buyers, and load them on the cars.

We Shall Also Sell on Monday Next:

Ottawa Play Argos at Rosedale This Afternoon, While T.A.A.C. Meet Parkdale.

The Big Four game to-day at Rosedale between Argonauts and Ottawa promises to be an interesting exhibition and those who have watched the sculiers work out this week say Argos will win and incidentally are betting their coin on the result. Ottawa fear Argos just as much as they do the Tigers and Coach Clancy of the easterners will be glad when the game is over this afternoon. Ottawa, who at present lead the league, will be the team that Varsity will have to meet if they land the Big Four honors, therefore many of the Varsity supporters will be at the game this afternoon to see the Rough Ricers play. Special car service will be provided on the Church-street line, white the plan, which has had a good safe, will be on safe till noon to-day at 189 Yongestreet. The game starts at 2.30. The teams:
