New Year's Shuffle Brings About Many Changes in Police Department.

At last the morality department which has long been the scorn and the laughing stock of the city, has been cleaned up and the cleaning has been thoro. What is more it has not only been rid of deadwood and undesirables, but new and, if their records count for anything, excellent men are chosen to replace them.

The commissioners began the good work when Detective George Kennedy, the ablest man in that department, was made staff inspector and by the order issued yesterday by Deputy Chief Stark, he is given a free hand, an'l provided with able assistants while nearly all of the old department have been swept away. Policeman Wood, station dutyman at the Agnes-street station, goes to the morality department with Staff inspector Kennedy, and Policeman Chap-man is removed from that department and made jail van escort. Policeman Cathers of the morality department will be put specially on humane work. Policeman Irvine, truant officer, is replaced by Policeman Lutton of No. 1. Irvine goes to No. 7 as station duty

The redistribution of police officers for the various stations following the recent promotions was announced yesterday by Deputy Chief Stark. It is

I have had men come to me uterly despondent and despairing of ever again feeling the vigor of health and strength in their veins—men who had spent hundreds of dollars with drug doctors—and I can refer you to these men to-day as among Nature's Dest specimens, without a reflection on their right to be called men. All this was accomplished through my wonderful new
