

for advertising, stationery, postage, &c., £15 17s. 6d; for the use of the Temperance Hall £3 10s. 0d.; for printing the 21st Report £46 10s. 0d.; Secretary's salary for 1859 £30 0s. 0d., and to the preacher of the annual sermon to meet his expenses the sum of £5 0s. 0d.

There remained in the Treasurer's hands at the end of the year 1859, £216 17s. 8d, from which must be deducted, Gossip's bill for printing £3 6s. 5d., unpaid grants £40 0s. 0d., and salaries of missionaries not called for until 1860, £201 10s. 0d., which would leave a balance due the Treasurer of £28 16s. 4d.

MEMORANDUM OF THE INCOME FOR 1860 SO FAR AS IT HAS YET BEEN RECEIVED.

Albion Mines £24 1 3

The clergyman there who has been but a short time in charge, when sending a larger contribution than was received in the previous year says :

"The plan (inaugurated by my predecessor,) of collecting from the youth attending the Sunday School, has again been attended with very considerable success. Our juvenile auxiliary has this year contributed nearly five pounds."

From the missionary at Bridgewater—

"I am glad to be able to say that matters in the parish are progressing as well as one who knows the ground could expect. The only thing I can complain of is the want of energetic men to take hold with me in the temporalities of the parish. I have continual requests from those who in former years were connected with the Church, to consider them as my parishioners again, and to favor them with an occasional pastoral visit, which among our people I find to be much esteemed. The number of baptisms so far this year exceeds the whole previous number, and the marriages and burials are far more numerous than they were last year. So that I feel cheered, and have every reason to believe that my labors in Christ are appreciated, and that there is, as the people themselves say, a bright time for us yet,—that though we are poor ours will be the true riches."
