

MISCELLANEOUS.

THANKS TO MR. T. McCRAE.—Mr. Thos. McCrae having intimated his intention to pay the grant due to the stations supplied by Mr. Henry Knox, catechist, thus relieving the fund to the amount of ninety-one dollars, the committee resolved to express its grateful recognition of Mr. McCrae's liberality on this occasion, as well as in his previous generous contributions towards the maintenance of Mr. Knox, who has labored successfully in the mission work of the Church in Muskoka, having been induced chiefly by Mr. McCrae to enter upon the work.

SUPPLY OF VACANT CHARGES.—As many Presbyteries find it difficult to secure supply of Ministers for the vacant congregations within their bounds in consequence of the General Assembly having discontinued the appointment of the Committee on the Distribution of Probationers, the Secretary was asked and agreed to act as a medium of communication between Presbyteries and Probationers and others, in this matter.

EXECUTIVE SUB-COMMITTEE.—The following is the Executive for the year :—Dr. Cochrane (convener), Dr. Campbell, Dr. Laing, Messrs. Macdonnell, Kilgour and Warden.
