A PLATE YOU CAN EAT WITH, HELD IN POSITION BY OUR NEWLY IMPROVED QUADRUPLE ATTACHMENT.

People don't want artificial teeth to carry around in their pockets nor keep at home in their bureau drawer so they will know where to find them when the door bell rings, they want teeth for service.

If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us; we have satisfied thousands and why not you? Our teeth are so natural in size, shape, color and the expression they afford to the face as to defy detection BY A DENTIST unless closely examined.

Our new attachment holds them as solid as though they were riveted in the mouth.

A meeting of the conductors and motormen of the street railway will be held tonight at 8 Portland street to perfect arrangements for a night of ice sports in one of the rinks.

Decidedly colder weather set in early this morning, with quite a snow fall. Indications now are for quite a cold snap, with the wind from the north-west. Today fair and decidedly colder.

Fishery Inspector J. F. Belyea informed the Times today that the regulations governing the size of lobsters to be taken have not been changed. The minimum length of lobsters must be 10 1/2 inches in length and in Charlotte county, 9 inches.

The following sums are acknowledged by S. L. Gorbell, for the Seaman's Institute Building fund: T. H. Eastbrooks, $200; H. C. Tilly, $85; and a number of others, $50. In the institute last night Wm. Pearce, superintendent of the Wiggins Male Orphanage, and a number of the boys, carried out a pleasing programme.

The second course of lectures given by the Ladies' Association of the National History Society will begin Thursday, Jan. 14th, at 4 p. m., in the society's rooms, Union street. The first lecture will be given, "The Ideals of William Morris, in Household Decoration," by Mrs. Joseph Westra B. Stewart. These lectures are free to members and their friends.

The first of the series of entertainments will be held in the Seaman's Institute tomorrow evening, when the ladies of Charlotte street Baptist church will present "An Old Maid's Confession." There will also be a musical and literary programme. An enjoyable evening is assured. Admission, 10 cents. On Tuesday evening next the concert party from the M. M. Corsican will give an entertainment, and on Thursday, Jan. 21, the ladies of St. Stephen's church will provide a programme.

HIS THIRTEENTH TERM AS SUPERINTENDENT

Queen square Methodist Sunday school held its annual meeting last evening. Rev. H. D. Marr presiding. A committee of ladies of the church entertained the officers and teachers of the school together with the members of the quarterly and trustee board at a luncheon in the parlors of the church before the meeting. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion and some fifty members were present. Needless to say a good time was spent.

The past year has been one of great success in the school. Arrangements were made to celebrate the anniversary of the school this year. The following officers were elected: Hon. superintendent and teacher of the school, Rev. H. D. Marr; superintendent, R. D. Smith; assistant superintendent, N. A. Rogers; secretary, Stanley Thompson; treasurer, A. Gilmore; assistant treasurer, A. T. H. Novard; librarian, Chas. M. Lingley; assistant librarian, L. V. Lingley; pianist, Miss Winnie Dunlop; superintendent of home department, Miss Josephine Betts.

R. D. Smith has been elected superintendent now for the thirteenth successive time. Reporting last night he gave a very encouraging resume of the year's work.

Constable Named as Witness in Cock Fighting Case Denies All Knowledge of It—Says He Will Make Policeman Finley "Sweat" if Law Will Do It.

Policeman Burchill, George Garnett and Robert Garnett, the defendants in the cocking main case, were present in the police court this morning, evidently under the misapprehension that today was appointed for the hearing. They were instructed by the clerk to attend a summons for their presence in court, as today was not the date assigned. On Saturday, when Robert Garnett and Burchill were in attendance with their counsel, As W. Macrae, and George Garnett was absent, J. King Kelley, on behalf of the S. P. C. A., announced his intention of issuing a summons for the absentee, which he stated would be returnable in all likelihood on Wednesday. In the interim no summons has been issued or served, for some unexplained reason.

Mr. Kelley informed the Times today that owing to stress of private business he has been unable to attend to the matter, but when questioned as to the proposed date of the hearing, he was non-committal, saying that it was advisable to withhold information from the press, as he has probably never met him on a Sunday. I was never at a cock fight in my life, and was never invited to one, and I have absolutely nothing about this case. I never owned a rooster, and don't know where Policeman Finley got his information connecting any names with it, but if there is a law in the land to do it, I'm going to make him sweat. I don't know whether there was a cock fight or not, and the reason I don't contradict it is because that I wanted to go on the stand and contradict under oath, but now it is too late. I have spoken to Robert Garnett since the Dominion election, except on Saturday in court. It must be over a year since I spoke to George Garnett, and I have probably never met him on a Sunday. I never owned a rooster, and don't know where Policeman Finley got his information connecting any names with it, but if there is a law in the land to do it, I'm going to make him sweat. I don't know whether there was a cock fight or not, and the reason I don't contradict it is because that I wanted to go on the stand and contradict under oath, but now it is too late. I have spoken to Robert Garnett since the Dominion election, except on Saturday in court. It must be over a year since I spoke to George Garnett, and I have probably never met him on a Sunday. I was never at a cock fight in my life, and was never invited to one, and I have absolutely nothing about this case.
