

At the Thanksgiving Service, in November, the collection
taken up amounted to.....	$41 74
Balance on hand January 1st, 1892.....	32 99
	<hr/>
	$74 73
Disbursements	50 00
	<hr/>
Balance on hand	$24 73

A much larger sum has been contributed to the schemes of the Church in 1892 than during the preceding year, but it is to be borne in mind that $500 of the total was a legacy from the estate of Mrs. George Marshall. Aside from this bequest, however, there stands to the congregation's credit this year the sum of $584.95 in place of $528.66 last year, an increase of $55.29. This is gratifying, and that the increase has not been larger is doubtless due to the many demands that are made upon the people. The Session urges upon all members and adherents the conscientious consideration of the various schemes of the Church, all worthy of the support of God's people.

The session note with gratitude that the members of the Young People's Society have undertaken to raise the sum of $500 for Church building in the Northwest, and this year have contributed and collected $207 of that sum. The object sought and the spirit shown by the young people is highly to be commended.

The attendance upon Sabbath and week-day services has on the whole been good, but there are those connected with the congregation, some in full communion, some adherents, who are too often neglectful of their opportunities. It is hoped that to many the year 1893 will bring greater interest in and appreciation of their privileges, and therefore a more regular attendance at the services of God's House. The attendance at the quarterly communion services has been as follows :