SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HOME AND ABROAD

SHILLARDS.

Champion Leads.
Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 14.—By a score of 150 to 120 Frank Taberski of his city, leader of the world's pocket billiard championship, disposed of Louis Greuter, the New York challenger for the title, in the first heat of their 400 point match here last night.

OWLING.

Ramblers Win From Colts.
The Ramblers outclassed the Colts last evening in the City League fixture, played on Black's alleys, and won by a wide margin. It is a coincidence that the winners had the same pinfall in their first and third strings.

BASEBALL.

Walter Johnson remarks that he would not be long in the league if he had no more success outside of Boston than in the Hub. He beat the Red Sox in the final series of the year at Fenway Park, but it was his first victory in Beantown in three seasons.

TURF.

Sydney Record.—Five, and possibly more speed horses are likely to be brought back to Cape Breton from the Old Glory Sale in New York that opens in Madison Square Garden on November 19th and lasts until November 24th. At least one Cape Breton horseman, Robert McCowan, will attend the big sale and plans to purchase some fast ones for various parties in this section. Mr. McCowan will, if possible, secure several green trotters and pacers, and intends to get a breeding stallion for his own stable. He will also make an attempt to buy a fast green pacer, and will have his eye open for any fast one that would do to clean up the races in the provinces.

POP GEERS

MADE REAL
COME BACK
Veteran Reinsman Finished Strong After a Poor Start This Season
Lexington, Nov. 13.—Those who were sympathizers with Pop Geers and expressing regret over the passing of the veteran Tennessee reinsman early in the season, need but to take a slant at the summaries of the last few meetings of the big ring and then cease worrying. The man who has been the idol of the harness tracks for more than a quarter of a century started off badly, it is true, but he got going at a great rate, and in the two-year-old trotter, Peter June, and the aged horse, St. Frisco, has two of the greatest performers now meeting—a pair which will land the veteran teamster up among the leaders in the money-making column.
The defeat of Mabel Trask by St. Frisco twice within a period of three days was the sensation of the eastern meetings of the grand circuit, particularly as the big horse, in winning the second heat of the Poughkeepsie race, trotted in 2:01.3-4, the world's race record for a trotting stallion.
