U. S. DESTROYER IS ASHORE IN SOUTH

Beaufort, N. C., Jan. 11—A United States destroyer ran aground on the beach half way between Beaufort and Cape Lookout Light, according to word received here from a tug in Cape Lookout Cove, which is attempting to reach the vessel and render assistance.

A strong wind is blowing and it is feared that unless assistance reaches the vessel it will be badly pounded.

We say this and, mind you, with the greatest diffidence, because of a very interesting letter to the Boston Herald, a particularly esteemed daily contemporary, in which the writer sets forth what he does to "enjoy all the pleasures of youth and old age, and none of its follies." As we have long attempted to compass such a state of almost Nirvana, we are naturally glad to receive any help.

Humorous Side Of "Keeping Well"

(J. H. S. in Boston Transcript.) One of the profound truths ever uttered in an age justly conspicuous for the large number of ladies and gentlemen who will have the facts and nothing but the facts, is that it is more comfortable to be well than to be ill. Personally, we have long disapproved of discomfort of any sort and this in the face of the fact that discomfort seems to be firmly entrenched. By all means, let us all keep well and hearty and robust. But to the hard-working man at a desk some of the means prescribed for that pleasant consumption seem a trifle difficult, if not terrifying.

AGENTS TO distribute the greatest in health. As we have exhaustively treated the subject of baldness in a former paper, we content ourselves with assuring readers who have no hair that they need not worry about it, and as to their complexion—water is their ally.

To proceed. The Herald's correspondent says that every night he washes his hair with water, and waits one or twice each week. When he rises in the morning, he does physically and mentally, and is better than when he washes and Turkish waters.
