WOULD BENEFIT ALL. WOULD BENEFIT ALL.

If the sources of the earth were used for the benefit of all the people, there could be no poverty. With modern methods of wealth production the workers could produce and receive $20.00 per day or more. This would mean better houses, better food, better clothes, better education. Humanity would really live. Lecture on "Socialism" by a western Socialist in Oddfellows' hall, on Sunday at 8.15 p. m., 87 Union street. Find out what Socialism is from Socialists and not their opponents. Delegates to congress cordially invited.

IMPERIAL THEATRE ON MONDAY Regular picture enthusiasts—and that means pretty nearly everybody—will be regaled with a greatly superior type of film-play on Monday and Tuesday of next week in a magnificent presentation of Shakespeare's "Othello, The Moor of Venice," consisting of five reels. Truly a wonderful subject, staged in Venice itself under civic direction, and during the proclamation of a special holiday especially granted for the proper photographing of the work. It is beautiful, surpassing, by long odds, a story "set" in studios, and the investiture is costly and sumptuous. It will not be neces-Regular picture enthusiasts-and that and sumptuous. It will not be neces-sary to know your Shakespeare to ap-preciate this lucid poem-drama, the pic-tures tell the tale in all its beauty and intensity. "Othello" will be a departure from the usual run of pictures, and should attract great crowds. The vaudeville will be three funsters from New York. Mr. Huskins will enter upon his farewell week, and Hearst-Selig Weekly number will show new war scenes.

Is your Baby ailing or delicate?

Is the hot weather and the dreaded summer diarrhæa making baby pale and weak? Even the baby that was doing well will ail in the summer, and the delicate baby may become a source of great anxiety, if Baby's food is not right, is hard to digest, and therefore does not nourish.

Cow's milk however prepared at home is frequently dangerous—is far "too strong" for the baby digestion-and starchy foods must not be given to babies under six months of age. Baby's sufferings in the summer are due to his food and its suitability.

Allenburys' Fods

are perfectly balanced foods. Being practically identical with healthy mother's milk, they ensure freedom from stomach and bowel troubles. The 'Allenburys' Foods provide all the substances for bone, flesh and muscle forming-certainty instead of uncertainty. Pure and free from germs, the 'Allenburys' Foods protect Baby against impure and tainted milk, against the many sicknesses that result from unsuitable food, and will bring Baby safely through the summer in good health and with increased weight. Babies thrive on the 'Allenburys' Foods. They are suited to the various ages and requirements, alike for the delicate baby or for the child in robust health.

Malted Food No. 8 From 6 months upwards, 30c. and 60c.
