REQUIEM FOR TITANIC VICTIMS. In St. Peter's church tomorrow morning requiem mass will be celebrated at seven o'clock and will be offered for those who lost their lives in the Titanic disaster.

FIRST COMMUNION. Thirteen children yesterday morning received their first communion in Holy Trinity church. They have been receiving instructions from Rev. J. J. Walsh, the pastor, for general weeks and delivered an impressive sermon to them yesterday morning on "The Blessed Eucharist."

AFTER FIFTEEN YEARS. An interesting visitor to the city today was Robert Sweet, who was a well known young man in St. John about fifteen or twenty years ago. He experienced much pleasure in meeting several old friends. Mr. Sweet is now located in Kansas City, Mo., and is the proprietor and owner of three restaurants, in which business he has been very successful.

BOSTON TRAIN LATE. The Boston train will probably be an hour or more late in reaching the city every day during the next week. It was an hour and twenty minutes behind the scheduled time today, owing to the Boston & Maine railway having not yet changed its table, and this will probably cause a similar delay for a week or so.

MOTOR BOAT RACE. Six motor boats left Indiantown this morning at 9:30 o'clock to engage in the race for the commodore's cup. The course is from Indiantown to Brown's Flat and return. Five were taking part in the race as contestants, while in the sixth were Commodore Gerow and other officials. It was not expected that any quick time would be made as the fog was reported fairly heavy to quite a distance up river.

DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT. There is a man living near the Marsh Bridge who is nearly blind, and whose mind is not clear. He is made the butt of jokes by boys and even young men. When annoyed he resorts to a stream of foul and profane language, regardless of who may be listening. As a result many little children hear expressions in his mouth never reach their ears. It is not only disgraceful to annoy this unfortunate man, but the same should be avoided as sense of decency, ashamed of themselves. The Times has asked that any quick time would be made as the fog was reported fairly heavy to quite a distance up river.

BURGLAR MISSED VERY RICH HAUL

Mr. Doherty Had Some $600 and a Diamond Ring When Ordered to Hold Up Hands

If the man who broke into the store of C. & E. Everett in King street yesterday afternoon and held up George W. Smith, a clerk, and James C. Doherty, was such a smooth crook as he is supposed to have been, he would have received very much more for his trouble. As it was, he got away with only a pair of boots and a soft hat, but if he had taken the trouble to go through the pockets of the two men he would have been well paid, as it is understood that Mr. Doherty had about $200 in his pocket at the time, besides having a valuable diamond ring on one of his fingers. Mr. Smith also had a little money in his pockets.

Both men held their hands up over their heads all the time they were in the store and naturally did not dare pull them down for a second. Mr. Doherty said this morning that his arms ached from holding them up so high and so long.

William Powell, aged twenty-one, was arrested between three and four o'clock for wandering about and not giving a satisfactory account of himself. Although he answered somewhat to the description given to the police, they are almost sure that he is not the man wanted. Chief of Police Clark this morning sent out telegrams to towns in the vicinity asking the police to have a sharp lookout for the burglar. One thing that is puzzling the police is the fact that the man did not have any boots on when discovered by the clerk. The question arises what did he do with his boots? If they were hidden in the building it is thought he would have gone for them, but almost the first thing he asked Mr. Smith was for a pair of boots. The conclusion the police have arrived at is that he could not get very far to get into the building, as the streets were all wet and muddy and he would be noticed without having boots. Within several doors of the Everett store is a lodging house, but it is understood that the owner told the police that there was no one in the house at all who would answer the description given by the two men. The matter is a perplexing one.

NEW MEN FOR THE MARATHON TEAM

Joe Tarbell and his brother are due to arrive in the city next week and will add greatly to the strength of the team. Joe writes that his brother is playing great ball this season. He is younger than Joe and has been attending St. Michael's College in Wisconsin, where the wily Joe is also a student. It is expected that Sweet will also be slung toward the latter part of the month.

Jack Fryer, who played second base with the team last year, arrived in the city at noon today and will figure in this afternoon's game. He was to have brought a team manager with him, but was unable to sign him. It is understood that several of the players now on the Marathon roster have received offers from some of the teams now playing in the Nova Scotia League. Copeland, who was signed on with the Marathons at the first of the season, will probably figure in the lineup of one of the teams in the Cape Breton League before long.

FORMER NEW BRUNSWICKER DIES SUDDENLY IN MONTANA

(Missoula, May 27.) Louis C. La Pointe, one of the best known residents of western Montana, who had lived in Missoula and vicinity for the last thirty years, was found dead in bed in Thompson yesterday morning. The brief report received by his family here was to the effect that heart disease was the cause of death. Mr. La Pointe had long been in unusual good health and had been seen alive. The body will be brought to Moncton today.

Louis La Pointe was born at Green River, N. B., sixty-three years ago and came to this city about thirty years ago. He was a blacksmith by trade and had followed this business most of the years he spent in western Montana. For some time he was head blacksmith for Marcus Daly and looked after the shoeing of all the race horses kept at the Bitter Root ranch. For sixteen years he was employed as blacksmith for the Big Blackfoot Milling company and then came to Missoula to engage in business for himself.

A week ago yesterday Mr. La Pointe left for Thompson to engage in special work there.

Mr. La Pointe leaves his wife and grown son here. He was a member of the local lodge of Masons.

OPERATE MILL AT SUTTON

It is understood that a portable mill is to be placed in operation at Sutton, about eight miles from the city, on the C. P. R., in a very short time, and that about thirty-five men will be employed during the summer months in connection with it. George McKean, lumber dealer, of King street, was said to be projecting the idea, but he had nothing to say concerning it today. It was said yesterday at Sutton, however, that the firm had secured a piece of land nearly on the site of the Dunn mill, which was burned some years ago. The buildings which were used for this former mill are still standing, most of them being in use as summer cottages, but the large building which was used as the men's boarding house is still unoccupied and this would afford accommodation for quite a number of the hands. It has been occupied for a few years as the summer home of the late J. W. Wiggin's Male Orphan Institution. It is said a start is to be made in a week or two in connection with the establishment of the mill.

AT ROCKWOOD PARK. There were again many hundreds of people at Rockwood Park yesterday. One met them in the afternoon on all the walks and drives, and especially near the pavilion. There was a constant procession of amusements, that end of the lake, and over toward the bear-house and deep park. The Salvation Army had quite a large audience at their outdoor meeting about four o'clock.
