WOMEN'S SHOES

The new styles are assembling and each arrival is a thing of beauty. We are well within the bounds of truth when we say these new Spring, of 1911, styles have reached a point in beauty of construction and shape—combined with the highest degree of excellence—beyond which it seems impossible to go.

We want every woman in town to call to see these New Spring Shoe Beauties. We'll talk about some of the different styles and prices later.

This is simply an invitation extended to the ladies, asking them to come to see our Spring Shoe Show.

THE NORTH END ROBBERY.
No arrests have been made in the recent robbery case in the North End. The police are working diligently on it and expect to make an arrest before long. Suspicion centres on two young men who live in the vicinity and who answer the description given by Mrs. Graham.

TO MARCONI STATION.
John Kelly, son of Michael Kelly of St. Patrick street, will leave this week for Portugal Cove, a Marconi station on the Atlantic Coast, where he has accepted the position of operator. Mr. Kelly was in the employ of the C.P.R. Telegraph Company for some time and many friends in the city will wish his success in his new position.

W. R. MONTGOMERY CASE.
Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum of New York, on Wednesday last reserved decision upon the application for a certificate of reasonable doubt in favor of William R. Montgomery, former president of the Hamilton Bank, and formerly of St. John, who was convicted of grand larceny and sentenced to serve five years in prison.

GOLF
Half-dozen early golf enthusiasts appeared on the local links on Saturday, and contrived to play a round or two in spite of the cold north-west wind. They cannot claim the record, however, for two well-known city merchants and a hotel man had been before them, breaking the season's ice about a week previous. Golfers predict an early season.

IS RECOVERING.
Jasper C. Warwick, who was severely injured some months ago by being thrown from a street railway, and was in the hospital here, is now able to resume active work. He speaks very highly of the treatment he received from the doctors, matron and nurses, while he was in the general public hospital here.

C. P. R. SURVEY WORK
St. George Greetings—The C. P. R. for the last few weeks have had an engineering crew at work making a general survey of this line. Many curves have been taken out in the new survey. In one case where there are now three only one is in the new. After the work is done it will be sent to the head offices for confirmation or registration. It is expected that this crew will also survey a line to L'Etang harbor, which may or may not be used in the future.

FOR A LITTLE INVALID
A 5 o'clock tea and candy sale held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. B. Knight, King street east, for the purpose of raising funds to buy an invalid's chair for a little lame girl, was well attended and very successful. It was arranged by a sewing club composed of a number of young ladies and a substantial sum was realized. Mrs. Wm. Peters, poured, Mrs. Douglas Olive ushered, and others assisting were: Misses Woods, Kathleen Gillis, Hilda Peters, Hazel deForest, Edith Fairweather, Nora Knight, Grace Fairweather, Harriet Vincent, Lillian Anderson and Margaret Knight and Mrs. David Ledingham.

CLOSE OF FORTY HOURS
The devotion of the Forty Hours in the cathedral were brought to a solemn close on Sunday evening when the building was crowded to the doors. Vespers were sung by His Lordship Bishop Casey assisted by Fathers Meahan, O'Keefe, Duke and O'Brien. The rest of the service consisted of recitation of the beads, sermon by Father O'Keefe, the Litany of the Saints and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The sermon was a masterly arrangement of evidence from the ages in support of the doctrine of the real presence and at the services on Saturday evening, Father Duke preached an appealing sermon appropriate to the special time of devotion.

HOUSE IN FLAMES AS THEY SLEEP

Chas. Osborne and Wife Catch up Children And Fleed

HOME IS DESTROYED

Flames Break Out in House on Dark Lake Road Early This Morning—Family Forced to Shelter in Barn and Watch House Burn Down

To be driven from their comfortable little home by fire at 3 o'clock in such a sharp morning as this was, with no clothing on save their night clothes to protect them from the biting wind, was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osborne and their three little children who resided on the Dark Lake Road, in the vicinity of the Isolation Hospital. The family lived in a two and a half story wooden house, and the fire which started their home at such an early hour, practically razed their home to the ground.

That the fire was not accompanied by loss of life is cause for wonder as it was not seen until nearly the whole house was enveloped in flames. The oldest of the children is but five years of age, and the youngest one year, and it was with difficulty that they were rescued from the flames.

Through Smoke and Flames to Safety
Mr. Osborne, who is a painter by trade, was at home all night yesterday. The family retired at an early hour last night. A sign of smoke or fire was seen before retiring, but about 2:40 o'clock this morning Mrs. Osborne was awakened by the crackling of wood, and the strong smell of smoke. She awakened her husband and it was discovered that the whole house was practically on fire. Seeing that it was almost impossible to extinguish the flames, the two ran to the room where the children were sleeping, and took the little tots out of bed and hastened out of the house, but the flames and dense smoke impeded their passage from the house, and it was with great difficulty that the children were rescued.

The flames spread rapidly and it was impossible for Mr. Osborne to gain access to the house again to try to save anything. Some distance away from the house is a little barn in which were stored a couple of carriages and a small quantity of hay. Here, the little family were forced to sit, shivering with the cold, and watch their house burn down. For more than half an hour they remained huddled up in the hay trying to keep warm. Some neighbors, seeing the fire, hurried to the scene, but found it impossible to render any assistance. A message was sent to the Isolation Hospital and word was telephoned to Mrs. Osborne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones in High street.

Man's three sons, each carrying a bundle of clothing, started for the scene of the conflagration at a distance of nearly three miles from the city. Meanwhile they were cared for on the Isolation Hospital.

Brought to City
Later a team was secured and Mrs. Osborne and her three children were brought to her mother's home in High street. There she said to a Times reporter: "I shall never get over the fright as long as I live. All our belongings, with the exception of one carriage, are destroyed. A piano, a quantity of jewelry and all our household furniture were destroyed by the flames, but fortunately we escaped with our lives."

Asked if it were known just how the fire started, Mrs. Osborne said that she thought it caught from an incubator in the rear of the house, but on this point she was not certain. She added that of late several tramps had been seen loitering about the place, and that the fire might have been of incendiary origin. "If the wind had been blowing the opposite way," she said, the barn would have also been destroyed, and we would have been forced to walk over a mile in our bare feet before we could have found a shelter, as the Isolation Hospital is the nearest building to our place. The neighbors were very good to us and must be credited with the saving of a moving machine, a sleigh and one wagon from an outcome."

Mr. Osborne carried $500 insurance with William Thomson & Co., but this amount would not begin to cover the loss, which is roughly estimated at more than $1,000.

PRESENTATION MADE TO PAUL LONGLEY
Gift from Badminton Club on His Leaving for Montreal—The Season Prize Winners

The final meeting of the Badminton Club was held on Saturday afternoon. An open tournament of mixed doubles was played and was won by Miss S. Hare and J. G. Harrison. The feature of the afternoon was the presentation of the club cups for the year, by Chief Justice Barker. The cup for the ladies' doubles was won by Miss S. Hare and Miss Mabel Thomson, that for the mixed doubles by Miss K. E. Hare and Paul Longley and the consolation mixed doubles by Miss Warner and Rev. D. Lang.

Much regret was expressed of the intended departure of Paul Longley, the secretary of the club, to Montreal, where he is to reside. Mr. Longley was the first secretary of the club at its organization ten years ago, and has held office ever since. On Saturday afternoon he received a solid silver cigarette case from the president, G. W. Jones, on behalf of the club. Mr. Longley replied in a feeling speech.

MUCH GRAIN SHIPPED.
In the week just closed, what is probably a new record for the port was made in grain shipments. A grand total of nearly 800,000 bushels of wheat, oats, corn, barley and buckwheat was delivered to the winter port steamer from the C. P. R. and I. C. R. elevators for shipment across the ocean.
