Report No. 17—Publishing Interest.

To the Bishop and Members of the Ontario Conference :

For almost a century the religious press has steadily been gaining power, until to-day it is recognized to be one of the most potent instruments in use for the diffusion of Gospel truth and righteousness. I trust we have convened at this time and place to deliberate and discuss the interests of this branch of the great church of our Lord. The publishing interests are of vital importance. Let me ask how can the church do the work that God has intrusted to her without a first-class publishing concern. We rejoice to know that we have in our publishing house at Dayton, Ohio, an agency of great power for the spread of light and truth. We are also pleased with the high moral and religious character of all its publications.
