

Grammar School regulations." 2nd. "That a certain portion of the School moneys for education be devoted to the establishment of schools for the higher English, Mathematics, and Natural Sciences." After a lengthened discussion, in which the Inspector of Grammar Schools, Rev. G. P. Young, M.A., took part, Mr. Dixon's motion was carried in the following amended form, viz., "That the funds should be apportioned among all Grammar Schools according to the average attendance."

The next subject announced in the circular for discussion was taken up, viz., "What means are best calculated to secure a practical union among Teachers, by Teachers' Associations or otherwise, with a view to promote their common interests, and the progress of Education?"

It was moved by the Rev. Mr. Blair, seconded by the Rev. Mr. Campbell, "That in the interests of Education it is desirable that a more complete organization be established among the different Teachers' Associations throughout Upper Canada; and that with this view a Committee of this Association be appointed, to take the necessary steps, and to correspond with the Local Associations."—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Chestnut, "That the Committee to carry out the above resolution be the Committee on the Constitution and By-Laws, and that the names of the mover and seconder of that resolution be added to the Committee."—Carried.

It was moved by Mr. J. B. McGann, "That Ladies be admitted Honorary Members of this Association by simply signing the Constitution." Moved in amendment by Mr. Chestnut, seconded by Mr. McCallum, "That Ladies be admitted to Membership in this Association without payment of the ordinary fee; and that this resolution take immediate effect."—Carried.

The Association then adjourned, to attend the Conversations in the Normal School Buildings, at 7 p.m.

The Conversations was well attended, and a most pleasant evening was spent. Addresses were delivered by the President, Dr. Wilson, of University College; by Dr. Eyerson, Chief Superintendent of Education; and by the Rev. Mr. Frazer, Commissioner from the Middle Schools Enquiry Commission of England. The musical part of the programme was under the direction of Mr. Humphreys, kindly assisted by Miss Gunn, the Misses Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Pernet, Mr. Scott, and Dr. O'Dea, while the Picture Galleries and Halls of the Normal School, which had been kindly placed at the service of the Association, added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion.

THIRD DAY.

The meeting was opened with prayer, by Professor Yoting.

The President announced that the first hour would be devoted to the hearing of Delegates from Local Associations; when the fol-
