A LIVELY TIME IN

THE POLICE COURT

E. M. Johnson and E. W. Robinson Air Differences Again -Other Cases Disposed of.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

In more ways than one the city police court resembled a theatre this morning. The space which is allotted to the general public was crowded with sightseers. They had come to see something out of the ordinary and they were not disappointed.

The first case which was called before -Magistrate Jay was the case against a Siwash of the name of "Long

He said that he would sail on the Dora Sieward. The money was the Dora Sieward. The money was given to him by Capt. Heater, and it was arranged that he should sign on the schooner when the ship was about to sail. It has been the custom of the company to advance money to Indians because it was impossible to get them to work on the boats unless they received an advance.

Since "Long Willie" had obtained the $10 he had gone to another company and signed on. From the second company he had obtained another advance

Cross-examined by Mr. Higgins the witness admitted that the money had been given to the prisoner on the faith of the statement that he would go on the Dora Sieward. This was the only
