What My Lover Said.

By the merest chance, in the twilight gloom,
In the orchard path he met me—
In the tall, wet grass, with its faint perfume,
And I tried to pass, but he made no room;
Oh! I tried, but he would no let me
So I stood and blushed till the grass grew red,
With my face bent down above it,
While he took my hand, as he whispering said—
How the clover lifted its pink, sweet head,
To listen to all that my lover said!
Oh! the clover in bloom—I love it!

In the high, wet grass went the path to hide,
And the low, wet leaves hurry over;
But I could not pass on either side,
For I found myself, when I vainly tried,
In the arms of my steadfast lover;
And he held me there and he raised my head
While he closed the path before me;
And he looked down into mine eyes and said—
How the leaves bent down from the boughs o'erhead
To listen to all that my lover said.
Oh! the leaves hanging lowly o'er me.

Had he moved aside but a little way
I could surely then have passed him;
And he knew I could never wish to stay,
And would not have heard what he had to say,
Could I only aside have cast him.
It was almost dark, and the moments sped,
And the searching night wind found us;
But he drew me nearer and softly said—
How the pure, sweet wind grew still instead,
To listen to all that my lover said.
Oh! the whispering wind around us!

I am sure that he knew when he held me fast
That I must be all unwilling;
For I tried to go, and would have passed,
As the night was come with its dew at last,
And tan sky with its stars was filling;
But he clasped me close when I would have fled,
And he made me hear his story;
And his soul came out from his lips and said—
How the stars crept out when the white moon led,
To listen to all that my lover said,
Oh! the moon and stars in glory!

I know that the grass and leaves will not tell,
And I'm sure that the wind, precious rover,
Will carry his secret so safely and well
That no being shall ever discover
One word of the many that rapidly fell
From the eager lips of my lover
And the moon and stars that looked over
Shall never reveal what a fairy-like spell
They wove round about us that night in the chill,
In the path through the dew-laden clover;
Nor echo the whispers that made my heart swell,
As they fell from the lips of my lover.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

The Chinaman is a realist. He takes his queue from nature.

Baird's French Ointment will cure the Itch in a few days, cures Salt Rheum, Chapped hands, Scald Head, Obstinate Sores and Wounds, Sold by dealers.

Children troubled with Worms will find sure relief by using that pleasant and efficient remedy McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup. Sold by dealers. Price 25 cents.

Masculine breach of promise cases will never succeed until there are female juries.

The Lady Godiva must have had exceptionally long hair since it completely concealed her lovely person. Since Ayer's Hair Vigor come into use such examples are not so rare as formely. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but gives it a rich, silken texture.

Boils, carbuncles, and other skin eruptions indicate the system is endeavoring to reject poisonous acid, and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is imperatively needed. It is the most reliable of the blood medicines. Ask you druggist for it, and take no other.

Notwithstanding the discussion now going on to decide if marrage is a failure, the brakesmen go right on coupling.

One Good Point

Out of the many possessed by Burdock Blood Bitters is that it may be taken at all seasons of the year, and by either young or old. In this way the three busy B's are always at work and doing good.

Prevailing Sickness.

The most prevailing complaints at this season are rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, inflammations and congestions. For all these and other painful troubles Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best internal and external remedy.

Capt Samuel Brooks, of the steamship Arizona, has made 600 trips across the Atlantic, sailing 1,830,000 nautical miles.

A Reasonable Hope

Is one that is based on previous knowledge or experience, therefore those who use R. B. B. may reasonably hope for a cure because the previous experience of thousands who have used it, shows it to have succeeded even in the worst cases.

Will be Fully Met.

Indications of dyspepsia, such as Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Rising and Souring of Food, Wind on the Stomach, or a Choking or Gnawing sensation at the pit of the stomach are fully met by Burdock Blood Bitters which has cured the worst cases on record.

Things do not always follow as a matter of course. A man who makes puns is not a pundit; neither is one who plays in a band a bandit.

Reliable Remedy for Rheumatism.

Procure a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil from your medicine dealer, and use according to directions. It cured Ida Johnson, of Cornell, Ont., of that complaint, and she recommends it as a sure cure. For 25 years it has never failed to give satisfaction.

A Narrow Escape.

People who are exposed to the sudden changes of our northern climate have little chance of escaping colds, coughs, sore throat and lung troubles. The best safe-guard is to keep Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam at hand. It is a quick relief and reliable cure for such complaints.

Food for Consumptives.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a most marvelous food and medicine. It heals the irritation of the throat and lungs, and gives flesh and strength quicker than any other remedy known. It is very palatable, having none of the disagreeable taste of the crude oil. Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

It is stated that "Prince Bismarck has gone back to tobacco." Alas, how sad to witness a great man's great resolution end in nothing but smoke!

for which I believe it to be the greatest medicine in the world."—James Miller, Caraway, N. C.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this medicine."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of a severe cold which had settled on my lungs. My wife says the Pectoral helps her more than any other medicine she ever used."—Enos Clark, Mt. Liberty, Kansas.
