SEVEN

NINE LIVES GRIM TOLL IN BURNING OF LAKE CAYUGA STEAMER.

Captain, Like Jim Bludso, Turned Her Nose Against the Bank and Staid By Until All Were Off—Victims Were All Women and Children Who Jumped Overboard in Panic—Crew's Bravery in Contrast to Cowardice of Men Passengers.

AUBURN, N.Y., July 27.—The steam-American proposition, "If all of these ed opposite Parley's Point at Lake Cayuga today and nine lives were lost.
The victims were all women and childdred passengers. Several other passengers were badly burned before the boat could be beached. The bodies of the drowned women and children have been recovered and the injured are being cared for at the homes of persons near the scene of the wrecked steamer.

The Frontenac, an old side wheel double deck craft, which had piled between Chatham and Cayuga on Lake Cayuga for 15 years, left for the latter place this afternoon carrying 50 passengers and a crew of 12.

Fire broke out in the engine room and a faint puff of steam was seen spread quickly to the after section of the boat. The crew of twelve behaved splendidly, fighting the flames at first, but seeing that nothing could save the boat, turned all their attention to the passengers. Life preservers were put on every one that could be found in the brief time, but in spite of their efforts, nine women and children perished. Capt.
Brown directed the work and was the last to leave the burning boat.

In strong contrast to the cool bravery of the crew was the panic and in some instances, cowardice, of many of the men among the passengers. In their efforts to save themselves they seriously impeded the work of the crew and endangered the lives of every one on the steamer. This is according to the statements of the crew themselves.

When the flames were first discovered in mid-lake Capt. Brown turned

BEA—

REPAIRS

The Star Line steamer Victoria which ran up on the wharf at Oromocto on Friday, reached Indianstown about half past one yesterday morning in tow of the tug Nereid. The tug Nereid met the crippled steamer at Robinson's Point and helped to bring her to dock. The sheathing is torn away presenting a big hole in her side and her guard rail crumpled up. The most serious damage is the broken paddle beam. Several beams of the paddle wheel are also broken. The whole weight of the boat came on her guard thus causing the damage.

Repairs to the steamer will be effected at the Star Line wharf, Indianstown and operations will be commenced early this morning.

Manager Orchard expects to have her repairs will not cost more than $200 in actual money. There will be no loss Tuesday or Thursday. The accident could not have occurred at a better time as there is very little freight to carry at this season.

LONDON, July 27.—The photo shows the new procession road from B.
Buckingham Palace to Trafalgar Square which is to be built in memory of the late Queen Victoria. In the foreground is the site to be occupied by the national memorial to the late Queen, which will consist of a marble statue surmounted by a winged figure of Victory. The height of the monument will be nearly 100 feet and the width of the avenue is 115 feet.

PATRIOTISM.

(By Lucia Ames Mead.)

The combative, belligerent spirit is not to be repressed, but utilized for noble purposes. The small boy who conceive himself a knight slaying the dragons that beset him and his comrades and rendering valiant aid to the oppressed—this is the spirit which we wish to see in the citizen. It is the spirit which we wish to see in the soldier of the peace, the citizen of the state, or the citizen of the world.

MOTOR CAR MYSTERY

SETS GOSSIP LOOSE

Identity of Persons Injured in Serious Accident Kept Secret by Police.

PARIS, July 27.—A mysterious motor car accident has occurred at Brienne.

A 40-horsepower car going from Lyons and traveling at a great speed, took the turning somewhat too sharply, and the car was thrown against a poplar tree. The four persons in the car—three men and a young woman—were thrown out.

Although thrown a considerable distance into a field of corn, the chauffeur was uninjured. He immediately got up and ran to the car, took out a ladder and hammer and began to erase the number on the plate, so that it should not be recognized. A woman in a dress, however, was able to read it—16-4.

The other occupants of the car had been badly hurt. One man, who was evidently a person of distinction, had his right leg and shoulder fractured, and the other man was suffering from an internal injury, and had lost several teeth, and his condition appears serious.

The remaining occupant, a young woman, addressed by one of the injured men as Charlotte, was badly bruised, but not seriously injured.
She is English, while the two injured men and the chauffeur are Germans.

Taken to an inn, the injured men gave their names to the gendarmes, who refused, however, to reveal their identity. This has aroused great interest, and it is rumored that one of the injured men is a royal prince.

The car, which was seriously damaged, was at once taken to the railway station and shipped to Germany.

The two injured men and the young woman were conveyed to a private house at Lyons this morning, where the utmost secrecy is observed.

The police refuse to give any information, saying the matter is of no interest.

ANARCHIST ORDERED
TO KILL DE WITTE

Instead He Slays Man Who Gave Him Bomb to Perpetrate the Crime.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—After killing Dr. Jollos, the Moscow editor, at the order of the man Kuznetsov, one of the Black Hand, who said it was the wish of the revolutionists, a young workman named Fedorov was ordered to kill Count de Witte.

But in a confession just forwarded by the Social Revolutionary Committee, he says that he then suspected Kazanov, and at the moment of receiving from him the bomb meant for the count, he stabbed him again and again with his dagger, almost separating the head from the body. After the confession, Fedorov told the committee that he availed the sentence of death, otherwise remorse would force him to commit suicide.
