STEAMER THREE TIMES

ANOTHER CHILD WAS BURNED TO DEATH!

The mother went to a neighbor's house nearby, leaving the baby with two other small children in the nouse alone, the father being away. When she returned the child's clothing was entirely burned off and the little one lay unconscious on the floor.

lay unconscious on the floor.

It is supposed the children were playing with matches. Medical aid was off no avail. It was indeed a heart-rending scene. The funeral took place this afternoon, interment at Kirk Hill, Rev. Scovil Neales officiating.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, of Penobsquis, took place this afternoon from her son's residence and was largely attended, many floral offerings bein in evidence Rev. C. J. Steeves officiated.

The fire department responded promptly to a call from Box No. 5 for a fire in the roof of the building occupied by Mrs. John Thompson at 1.15 o'clock this afternoon. The fire was put out with little damage.

With the present fire equipment and a water pressure of 82 pounds it is pretty hard for a fire to gain headway in this town.

THAW'S TROLLEY RIDE

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 5— Harry K. Thaw had an outing today, consisting of a trip to Fishkill Land-ing, a trolley ride of five miles and a return trip by river steamer to this city.

The law's delays made this little excursion possible. Thaw has a law suit pending before Referee John F. Schlosser at Fishkill Landing to fix the value of the service of Dr. John P. Wilson, one of his experts who testified in his habeas corpus suit. Sheriff Chanler is under orders from Judge Tompkins to produce Thaw before Referee Schlosser at such times and places as the referee may direct.
Thaw attracted much attention

Thaw attracted much attention wherever he went. He chatted with newspaper men and was introduced by them to a number of people. The second hearing in his case has been fixed by Referee Schlosser for Friday at ten a. m. Meantime Thaw will remain in jail here.

NINE HUNDRED HOMELESS.

GENEVA, Aug. 1.—The Alpine village of Bonaduz, which is situated on a plateau 2160 feet high overlooking the Rhine, near Coire, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon.

One hundred and ten houses, mostly made of wood, were burned down, and over 900 villagers have lost all their possessions and are homelese. Only the church and the Hotel Oberalp escaped.

No lives were lost. The authorities of the canton of Grisons are sending help.

officers say that for an hour and a half the lightnirg was very sharp and that three times the electric bolts struck the mainmast and followed down into the engine-room putting out the electric lights. The wireless operator also cut the current and suspended business because of the strong electrical currents that bothered the wires.

The officers of the steamer say that the ellectrical display in the heavens was more severe than anything they have ever witnessed. Once the captain, first pilot and the quartermaster were stunned by the electrical sparks from the clouds. There were over 400 passengers on board. The trip was, on the whole, rather a smooth one except for the terrific lightning.

thur, the two-year-and-six-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, of Roachville, was burned so badly yes-terday morning that the little fellow died last evening at 5 o'clock.
