On Sunday morning the convention ermon was preached in Leinster Street Church by Rev. H. F. Waring of the first Baptist Church, Halifax, and formerly pastor of Brussels Street Church in this city. The sermon was deep, philosophical and highly instructive. The speaker's theme was: "The Bible as Religious Literature, Inspired and Inspiring," while he took for his text II. Timothy iii, 15 and 16: 'And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unti salvation through faith which is in Jesus Christ. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruc-

ments have had different literature. A religious literature of Christianity is was taken up and what was necessary for authoritative canon. "The proper method for the consideration of the inspiration of the scriptures is not to for London, Ont., to attend the annual for London, Ont., to attend the annual the Bible itself to get relevant facts and in the light of the relevant facts and in the light of the study of other literature, and to proceed inductively toward the goal of a satisfactory definition." The claims of the Bible for its inspiration were considered and attention called to Paul's musual sug-gestion for sensible men to decide for themselves. The language in which the claims were made should be trans-people of Quebec?" If the denomina- lieve in the Bible, or had doubts contion cannot raise money to send miscerning it. The appeal was to treat that the young men who went to the enough to send them to Quebec, even other literatures, but to tree back and work for $412 a year. The board should not offer such petty sal-dries to men, and he was sure that if thorough comparison of the Bible with the convention, and gave evidence of thorough comparison of the with the deep interest which the speaker has other literatures, and thus, instead of defending God's truth, to let it defend

Shipment of Apple Will be Enormo Weekly Furness Steamers From

from Halifax last year amounted to only about 80,300 barrels. The coming season the shipment from this port will be close to 350,000 barrels." Such was the statement made yesterday afternoon by James Hall, manager at Halifax for Furness, Withy & Co., who had returned a day or two ore from a trip through our fru growing country. Mr. Hall went on to

"You will be able to get good apples in Halifax this winter, for I saw nothing but good fruit in Kings and Annapolis. The crop is enormous quantity and excellent in quality." "How about the facilities for getting the apples to the English market this

"We will run a weekly service to London, commencing September 18, when the steamer St. John City is due to sail. Last season we ran the boats every ten or twelve days, but now we are starting them weekly. Our boats will run on that schedule till the end of October, and all winter if the apple trade requires a service of that frequency. We have explained by circular to the fruit growers and shippers what we propose to do and the week ly steamship sailings are advertised in

"Can you get the fruit across in good "Well, our steamers are equipped in a way that should make this possible. We have fitted the St. John City, the Loyalist and the Evangeline with electric fans and the Gibbs system of ventilation, and the Gulf of Venice has cold storage accommodation. The ventilation system on the three steam-
