

Preston (Third).—No additions have been made during the past year. Our Church remains the same, with one death during the year. We pray earnestly for a revival of the Sunday School and meetings generally.

Dartmouth.—Dear Brethren,—Again a few of us are spared as living monuments of the tender mercies of God to see another Association Session; and though the swift messenger has made great inroads amongst our members, yet the few that remain bless God for what He has done, knowing that He does all things well. We trust you will have a good time, and great good will be done in teaching and preaching the way of salvation.

Beech Hill.—Brethren,—The Almighty God has spared us all as a Church another year. We have lost none nor added any. Our beloved Brother, Rev. A. Bailey, labors with us incessantly, and we trust God for the result. Our attendance is small although interesting.

Campbell Road.—Beloved Brethren,—We have been blessed with rather a golden opportunity in again sending one of our members to be ordained as Deacon. Pray for him that his labours might be blest. Hoping for a good time in future. One of our old Pillars has fallen, but we trust his place is well filled.

Horton.—Dear Brethren,—Our Church is composed principally of seafaring men who are always absent. We feel much a need of their presence to assist in leading the meetings; nevertheless the Master always provides. Bro. John A. Smith has labored with us several times during the winter, and we trust that God will show the fruit thereof. The Rev. James Thomas visited us during the winter and we had a good time. Pray for us that we might prosper and become great in the sight of the Lord.

Cornwallis.—Brethren,—We send you Christian salutation, and trust that God will preside over your deliberations as a Church. We are trying to keep up our meetings. We are without a Pastor. Although we have had no new additions the past year, we have lost none. Rev. S. Walls has left here and gone to St. John, N. B., which lessens our help. We, therefore, wish the Rev. James Thomas to look after our
