

Social Notes of the Week

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Feb. 2.—That the "shop" table at the Tuesday meetings of the Rothsay Red Cross Society, is being appreciated, was proved this week, when Miss Hamington, who is now in charge, reported $11 as the afternoon receipts. Proceeds from afternoon tea, which was on Tuesday provided and presided over by Mrs. Royden Thomson and Missa Gilbert, were also most encouraging. Eight boxes of Red Cross material were sent forward from this society end of January, showing a good month's work. Our secretary, Miss Muriel Robertson has returned from a visit to Halifax friends, and the monthly business meeting next Tuesday afternoon, should be a very interesting one, with a fine report of work accomplished.

The people of Rothsay have always been ready to help in all work pertaining to the war, and have not been behind in sending cheer to our men in the trenches. Recently an appeal for socks and money to buy socks sent out by the Soldiers' Comfort Association (of which Miss Annie L. Brock is the local secretary), was responded to by forty-six pairs of socks and forty-eight dollars in money. The time limit in which contributions might be sent in was short or the results would probably have been greater. Last October, a "Country Fair" was held here in connection with the work of the Soldiers' Comfort Association. Of the proceeds $200 was reserved to be used in sending a Christmas box to each of our Rothsay soldiers. One hundred packages were prepared and many letters of thanks have been received by Miss Brock. One of our boys writes: "I have seen a good many Christmas boxes come to me, but none that can compare with those sent out by you, on behalf of the Fair. I am sure the other boys from Rothsay will appreciate them as much as I have. A box of that type takes us all back home and makes us think of our loved ones, and the Red Cross Society sent to each man on our parish honor roll a well filled Christmas stocking, and to every one Mrs. H. F. Puddington also sent a stocking and has received from them letters of appreciation and thanks."

The collecting of waste paper done by some of our young ladies during the summer and autumn, is to be taken up again, Miss Mary Robertson and Miss Nan Fairweather are two of the interested ones, and everybody can assist the Red Cross work by saving every bit of paper, magazines, to be collected for. Of course, there many magazines which will be welcome at the Convalescent Home and Military Hospital, etc.

The Once-in-a-While Club, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. C. Read, the president, Mrs. Gronlund in the chair. Members who looked forward to the study of Maurice Maeterlinck, as one of compelling interest, had their expectations realized. Mrs. Gronlund gave a very comprehensive review of this now world-famous man, in his various roles as author, dramatist and lecturer, not forgetting his gift of wife. Miss Tweedie reviewed his work, "The Life of a Bee," presenting very clearly all the varied activities of these busy little creatures. Mrs. Joseph Wood was listened to with closest attention from first to last, as she led her hearers from act to act of Maeterlinck's wonderful play, "The Blue Bird," which has only been presented on this side of the Atlantic in New York. One of the ladies present had seen the play staged in London. In connection with Mrs. Gronlund's address extracts from essays were read by Mrs. Liddy, Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Read. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Freeman-Lake at 7:30, February 13th. The subject will be "The Poetry of the War."

Warren Cole, Mrs. Herbert Goodwin, Mrs. Isenhour, Mrs. Fred George, Mrs. Cochran, Miss Edna James, Miss Edith Trueman and Miss Nellie Copp.

The fortnightly meeting of the Reading Circle of the W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Calhoun on Monday evening under the leadership of Mrs. H. E. Thomas, was opened by singing "The Morning Light is Breaking," after which Mrs. Sprague led in prayer. Mrs. Thomas then reviewed the work among the French Canadians; the outcome of the Ladies' French Missionary society of Montreal, organized in 1878 and united with the larger organization of 1881, the object being not to assail Romanism nor yet to proselytize but simply to educate our fellow countrymen on the basis of an open Bible for all. Mrs. Thomas closed with a tribute to the hundreds of French Canadians who are fighting for us in Europe.

Mrs. David Hickey, then spoke on the work of the French Institute for both boys and girls opened in 1889 and situated on Avenue Green, Montreal. The regular course of study covers a period of five years, and students are prepared for entrance to McGill Normal School, or for university matriculation, if they so desire. The girls are also given domestic training, sewing etc. Mrs. Hickey read several letters from former students, who are at the forefront, who mentioned that the influence of their training in the Institute has been of great help in moments of danger and difficulty. Rev. Paul Villard is the principal.

Mrs. Borden gave a paper on the Mission schools of Montreal. The east end Syrian school, which also includes English, French, Poles, Greeks, Bulgarians and Italians, who feel at home there. It is often necessary to dismiss the school a second time, as school days are more welcome than holidays. The boys and girls of the mission have finished and sent in 1,455 articles for the Red Cross work, and both day and Sunday schools have contributed to the patriotic fund. Two boys are at the front and others in preparation.

There is also the Italian Methodist day school open to children under fourteen years of age. They quickly learn to read, write and sing in English and Italian. Mrs. Desbarres then read an interesting story of the Italian mission in Toronto, and of the annual sewing school picnic in Queen's Park. Mrs. Meserere then sang most impressively the beautiful song "My Task," accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Goodwin. Mrs. Secord then gave brief review of the work of the French Protestant Home at Belmont Place, Montreal, for both sexes. Subjects taught, English, French, cooking, singing and painting. Industries taught, house work, in all branches, sewing, mending, dressmaking, and forms of knitting. The principal reports that they were able to take the children away from the heat of the city, for two months last summer, nearly all had never seen a butterfly, farm animals, nor flowers growing in the hedges, nor picked wild fruit. They had many contributions at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and through the generosity of friends, a gramophone was bought for their amusement. A number of auxiliaries and mission circles sent supplies of preserved fruit, quilts, clothing and potatoes.

No Sign of Dropsy And Kidney Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES."

HATTIE WARREN

Port Robinson, Ont., July 8th, 1915.

"We have used 'Fruit-a-tives' in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives' and would never be without them."
