Today—and it is a difficult job under the best circumstances to step from war to peace conditions—out Government must have the cash with which to carry on the work. The fact that peace is in sight does not mean a cessation of expenditure. It will in course of time lead to reduction, but there will be practically nothing of an immediate nature. Because of this there must be no slackening of effort to make this Victory Loan a tremendous success. And if Dr. Roberts is right in his stand which he takes at present he must have been wrong a week ago. But a week ago he stated that he was right, and if so, today he is wrong. At any rate we all hope that the "film" scare is about over, and that we may resume a more normal condition of living.

And Hospital Board Want to Know Why-C. G. R. Gets First of the Big New Loco-

Young boys at the corner of Britain and Sydney streets congregate in large numbers in the evenings and cause unusual noise and embarrassment to the residents of that section. Similar occurrences happen in another section of the city and both cases have been reported to the police who will endeavor to bring these cases into court, and the disturbers will be meted just punishment. Moncton, Nov. 13.—The case against William O'Connell, charged with inciting riot when the police station was stormed on Monday night, was before the court today, and the evidence of three policemen taken. The case continues on Friday.

Miss Adelaide McDonald, Matron of the Moncton Honyitzi Lendered her.

Miss Adelaide McDonald, Matron of the Moncton Hospital, tendered her resignation tonight at a meeting of the hospital board. Her resignation was held in abeyance to ascertain the cause of the resignation, which came as a surprise to the board. Miss McDonald came to Moncton from Montreal in June last.
