Fifty Cents for a Wife. [From the Boston Traveller, March 4]

A funny looking specimen of humanity has been perambulating several of our streets for a few days past and going into our warehouses and informing the clerks CHOICE ENGLISH CONGOU TEA. For that he was very much in want of a wife, that he had been trying for a long time and had not succeeded. He seemed terri bly in earnest and was willing to pay any one who would recommend him.

When asked what price he was willing to give he said fifty cents. He had on a somewhat ancient-looking hat, with the crown more or less jammed,

Received and for sale by JOHN CHRISTY. a huge pair of rubber boots, with his Dr. Baxter's Chalybeate. pants tucked inside of them, and his hair was long and matted and had the appearance of not having been combed for the he needed just what he was in search of. He said he resided near Tufts College, and could give a wife a real good home on a farm. Take him all in all he was the farm. Take him all in all, he was the funniest looking specimen that has moved around these parts.
