negotiating with Spain for the cession of Porto Rice is reported at Washington and comes from a seemingly authentic source. The new version is that the proposed cession is to satisfy the money claims of Germany against Spain, which have been urgently pressed. It is stated that our State Department has already protested strongly against this action.

A serious accident occurred this forenoon on board the bark Kate Agnes, discharging coal at Merritt's wharf. Daniel Holland, a rigger, who was engaged in making some repairs on the vessel, was making some repairs on the vessel, was removing one of the yards from the foremast. The yard, by some means, was turned round, and struck Holland, knocking him to the deck, a distance of forty feet. He struck on the anchor chains, the best of his head betty heads out and the back of his head being badly cut, and his back broken. He was at once conveyed to his home at York Point, where he lies in an insensible condition. Very little hopes of his recovery are cherished. Holland is a young married man.

Assaulting a Policeman—Deserved Punish-

On Saturday evening Policeman Briggs, while on duty in Sheffeld street, saw Thomas Kearns, a young man, misbehaving himself, and remonstrated with him. Kearns walked off, after giving a little impudence, and went into a house. In a short time he came out brandishing a knife, and swearing he would "cut the heart out of Briggs." The policeman went to arrest him, when he ran away and disappeared round the correct Lose. went to arrest him, when he ran away and disappeared round the corner. In a short time he re-appeared when Briggs's back was turned and followed him. Hearing a step Briggs turned round, and at the same moment received a blow on the side of the face from a club in Kearns's hand. The blow almost stunned him, but he managed to secure his assailant. Had he not turned the force of the blow must have seriously injured, if not broken, his skull. As it was the side of the face and jaw are very badly swollen, and his teeth are loose. On being arraigned for trial this morning Kearns at first denied the charge, but afterwards first denied the charge, but afterwards

STEWART'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE! GREAT SUCCESS OF THE SUFFERER'S

TIS A PREVENTATIVE.—James Gosling, of Ganderville, Nova Scotia, writes: DEAR SIR.—We always keep a bottle of your Wonderful Anodyne on the dresser, and we have not had a rat or mouse in the house since. I don't think they like it. My family suffered for years from the ear-ache; have you anything good for it?" Thousands of testimonials are constant coming in from the various Lunatic Asylus and Ponitentiaries throughout the Dominio All testify as to the unrivalled excellence of the botted cu e-all.

HOW IT SAVED A MISSIONARY'S LIFE! make use of this.

To Gum chewers and Tobacco inflators this Anodyne is an especial boon, as it sharpens the melars and stiffens the bicuspids.

Don't fail to try it, before the law steps in and prohibits its sale!
