

efficient preachers and leaders in the service of prayer and praise in the house of God.

The work in this department is also supplemented by practical parochial work carried on under the supervision of the Professor of Practical Theology, with cottage meetings and Bible-class work in the city, and the supply of missions in the country from Sunday to Sunday during the long summer vacations. This work, duly limited and supervised, is of great importance. It is analogous to the clinical instruction and hospital practice so essential in the study of medicine. It constitutes an indispensable factor in theological education, if it is to be practically efficient in the moulding of pastors and workers who are not merely theoretical theologians.

There are in Toronto so many Christian workers, and so many departments of Christian work, that the students have unequalled opportunities for gaining a practical acquaintance with the various methods pursued, and must receive both stimulus and enrichment from this contact.

THE WORK OF THE COLLEGE.

The College is not local in character, but it is intended to provide for the education of men from and for all parts of the Dominion. The great Northwest is rapidly filling up with a population of which a great part are members of the Church of England. So far, we have failed to provide adequately for the spiritual wants of these people; and not only there, but in the older parts of the Dominion, men of earnest piety and Evangelical principles are greatly needed. The demand for graduates of Wycliffe is far in excess of the present capacity of the College to supply.

One great purpose of Wycliffe College is to foster a true missionary spirit in its graduates, and to keep constantly before them the missionary work and needs of the Church and the world. Her graduates have shown themselves willing to work for God wherever His hand leads them, and those whose work lies near home have been zealous and faithful in procuring funds for the maintenance of their missionary
