'On with the Show'

First 100 per cent. Natural Color, Talking, Singing, Dancing, Vitaphone Picture.

Manager Roddick of the Capitol Theatre announces Fair Week's great attraction as "On With the Show," Warner Bros. first 100 per cent. natural color, talking, singing, dancing, Vitaphone picture.

"On With the Show," besides the glamour of back stage life—it is a play within a play—combines a tender heart story, with the fantasy that is in the extravaganza which the stranded company of players are determined to put on, despite the fact that the "ghost" refuses to walk.

Gorgeous costumes and settings are seen in their ows brilliant coloring, and the tintings make the players all but living. Beside the great cast, "On With the Show" has a chorus of dazzling beauties, numbering over one hundred.

On of the interesting things about this story is the fact that it is the first play of Humphrey Pearson, who went to Hollywood for his health, casually flung his brain child into the Warner Bros. lot—to find himself a fortnight later—with a job as a special writer for them, and with "On With the Show" in production.

Robert Lord did the screen adaptation. The cast includes Betty Compson, Arthur Lake, Sally O'Neil, Joe E. Brown, Louise Fazenda, Ethel Waters, William Bakewell, Fairbanks Twins, Sam Hardy, Wheeler Oakman, Lee Moran, Otto Hoffman, Harry Gribbon, Purnell B. Pratt, Josephine Houston, Henry Fink, Thomas Jefferson and Tom O'Brien. Alan Crosland directed.

THE AIR IS DIFFERENT.

Lake of Bays is one thousand or more feet above the sea level, and the altitude of this sequestered group of lakes combines with the fragrance of the pines to give the visitor a new vigour in life. You have real enjoyment—golf or paddling all day long without tiring. You eat heartily and sleep like a log.

Select your own type of accommodation, for here you save them all from rustic cottage to the most pretentious of hotels. Canadian National Railways' comfortable trains connect at Huntsville with the steamer for all points on the Lakes.

Ask any Canadian National Agent for information and literature on this attractive country.

A WORLD APART

When you leave the steamer "Belle of Temagami" you are in a quiet retreat seemingly thousands of miles from the noisy workaday world. Peace and quiet are the chief laws of this forest kingdom, twenty miles from the nearest automobile and a hundred from a street car.

Under the lordly trees of Temagami, black bass, lake trout and maskinonge lie in wait for the fisherman in the innumerable lakes. The quaint Indian settlements, the magnificent scenery and the many other attractions simply can't be appreciated until you see them.

Ask your Canadian National Agent for literature and information on Temagami.
