While on his way to work on Saturday morning about 6.15 a.m., Mr. Samuel English saw a deer lying near the watering trough by the reservoir. He stopped and aroused the animal and it trotted away down the Keatville Brook. It was about the size of a yearling heifer.

Word received from Sergeant George W. Beck, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church here, states that he is in good health, and ready to leave with his Brigade, at a moment's notice for France. The best wishes for his prosperity and safe return will follow him from his many Kentville friends. Sergeant Beck is a member of the 36th Battery, 9th Brigade, C.F.A., now in London.

An exciting game of basketball was played in Pastime Hall, Tuesday evening between the "Town team" and "The Youngs," the latter winning the victory, score 26-10. The game was fast from start to finish. The splendid combination work of "The Youngs" team was especially noticeable. All of the girls played well, being ever on the alert for their opponents. Mr. J. Roy Hiltz was in his usual good form and refereed satisfactorily. Each team now have one victory to their credit. At the close of the game an informal dance was held.
