Law Society may appoint Examiners, and make Rules touching the examination and admission of Attornies and Solicitors, &c.

XIX. The Law Society of Upper Canada are empowered, and they are hereby required, from time to time, to make and ordain all such Rules and Regulations as they may consider necessary for conducting the Examinations of persons applying to be admitted as Attornies and Solicitors, as well touching the Articles and Service, and the several Certificates hereinbefore mentioned, as the fitness and capacity of such persons to act both as Attornies and Solicitors ; and from time to time, to nominate and appoint, if they shall see fit to do so, Examiners for the purpose of conducting such examinations as to the said fitness and capacity : Provided always, that such Rules and Regulations shall be first submitted to and approved of by any three or more of the Judges of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas or Chancery of Upper Canada of whom one of the Judges of each of the said Courts shall form one.

Such Rules and Regulations to be submitted to and approved of by the Judges.

Persons only admitted in one Court capable of practising in all other Courts on signing the other Rolls.

XX. Every person who shall have been duly admitted, sworn and enrolled as an Attorney or Solicitor of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Chancery of Upper Canada shall be entitled, upon the production of his Admission therein, or an Official Certificate thereof, and that the same still continues in force, to be admitted as an Attorney or Solicitor in any other of the said Courts (as the case may be) upon signing the Roll of such other Court or Courts, but not otherwise, and shall thereupon be entitled to practice as an Attorney or Solicitor therein, as the case may be, in the like manner as if he had been sworn in and admitted an Attorney or Solicitor of such Court.

XXI. Every person who shall, pursuant to this Act, apply to be admitted an Attorney or Solicitor, shall before he be admitted and enrolled as aforesaid, take and subscribe the oath, or if he be one of the people called Quakers, the affirmation following :

"I, A.B., do swear (or solemnly affirm, as the case may be) that I will truly and honestly demean myself in the practice of an Attorney (or Solicitor, as the case may be) according to the best of my knowledge and ability. So help me God."

No Attorney or Solicitor to trade as a Merchant.

XXII. No Attorney or Solicitor being a Merchant or in anywise connected by partnership, public or private, in the purchasing and vending of merchandize in the way of trade as a Merchant, shall be permitted to practice in any of the Courts of Upper Canada during the time he may be such Merchant or so engaged as aforesaid, nor until twelve months after he shall have ceased to be such Merchant or so engaged as aforesaid,

Persons having completed the period of service but not been admitted may, if qualified, be admitted.

XXIII. Every person who at the time of the passing of this Act, or within the period of six months thereafter, shall have completed his period of service according to the Laws in force at the time of the passing of this Act, but shall not have been admitted an Attorney or Solicitor in pursuance of such service, shall, if otherwise qualified according to the re-
