

An Act in amendment of the Yukon Territory Act.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows :—

1. The Yukon Territory Act, chapter 6 of the statutes of 1898, c. 6 amended. 1898, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section immediately after section 15 :—

- “15A. An appeal shall lie from any official act, decision or judgment, whether based on law or fact, of any mining recorder, gold commissioner or mine inspector, to any judge of the said court. Appeal to Territorial Court.
- “2. The appellant shall within five days from the date of such official act, decision or judgment, appealed from, give notice of appeal to the official appealed from, by leaving the notice at the office of the said official, and file security to the sum of two hundred dollars with the registrar of the court, for the costs of the appeal and for the carrying out of any order which may be made by the court in the course of such appeal. Notice of appeal. Security for costs.
- “3. The appellant shall also file with the said registrar, within ten days, a written statement, concisely stating the substance of the matter complained of, and serve a copy thereof on the official appealed from, either personally or by leaving a copy at the office of such official. After the filing of the said statement, the registrar shall forthwith issue a summons to the official appealed from and to the appellant, requiring them to attend before the said court; and the court after hearing the appeal, may make such order or decree as it deems just. Filing of complaint. Issue of summons to registrar. Order of court.
- “4. After the service of notice of appeal on the official appealed from, as provided in this section, no action shall be taken by any mining recorder, gold commissioner or mine inspector with regard to the subject matter of the appeal, until the adjudication of the court; and if any action is taken, contrary to this provision, such action shall be of no effect, and no rights shall be acquired thereby.” Action pending appeal.
