

Sell the CBC For Scholarships

HAMILTON (CUP) — If the government were to abolish the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, students could have their long-promised federal scholarships, a Liberal MP told McMaster students here recently.

Ralph Cowan said finance minister Mitchell Sharp's austerity moves in postponing medicare, educare and construction of the Prince Edward Island causeway are wrong.

"They are going to save money by not spending money that has not yet been spent," the member from York Humber told students.

Mr. Cowan was taking part in a debate on the resolution: Resolved that the CBC's role as a public information agency should be terminated.

U of T Teach-In On China

Ideas, not men, were on trial at Canada's Second International Teach-In held last weekend at Toronto's Varsity Arena.

A total of sixteen experts and scholars involved their audience in the discussion of "China: Coexistence or Containment?" The title was drawn from two alternative ideas proposed originally by the United States and the USSR respectively.

The Teach-in, preceded by China Week on the University of Toronto campus, dealt with four different areas of discussion: Inside China Today; China and The Emerging Nations; China and the Industrial Nations; and World Response to China.

The Teach-in was released to Universities and cities across the continent by live radio hook-up and extensive television coverage.

It was estimated that last year's 1,000,000 viewers and listeners would be easily surpassed.

According to various estimates, there were between 5,000 and 8,000 in attendance at the Teach-in.

introducing lapinette by donkerr the crassly commercial carrot-consuming advertising rabbit this is lapinette.

lapinette is a young and frisky french type of bunny who deals with the campus branch of the bank of montreal.

happy giving the impression that she is a paragon of affluence.

this is lapinette, before checking her bank balance.

happy learns the subtle difference between a paragon and a parody.

this is lapinette, who has suddenly learned the meaning of the word thrift.

happy lappy clasps coins closely and contemplates the subtle difference between a parody and pecuniosity.

this is lapinette, who has just decided that bank managers are basically kind of kind. you see, he advised her about student loans. truth is, our bank managers can't stand to hear a rabbit cry.

all students - even rabbitic - qualify.

we'll mind your money for you if you can't stay.
