Far to the East, a Star shone, and on that first Christmas Eve, its radiance beckoned the Magi to the Miracle of the Manger, there to worship and rejoice in the meaning of His message... "On earth peace, good will toward men." Wherever the wonder of Christmas shines today, may it hearten and inspire us, and may it light the way to peace and joy everlasting. To friends and patrons, many thanks.

CHRISTMAS IS A TIME FOR HOMECOMING

N. T. Williamson, R.E.P.A.

To be home at Christmas is more than just a tradition in our Christian civilization. It is a deep, heart felt need to be with our family and friends; to immerse ourselves in the sights and sounds and scenes of our most important memories; to be HOME. All of us who have been away at school, or work, or the armed forces or just seeking our fortunes in the world, know the pulse-quickenng feeling of rounding the last familiar corner to the place that is home to us.

Simple or sumptuous, the image of it grows sharp with longing when we think of returning there. The loneliest loneliness of all is the one that we humans feel at Christmas when we are unable to return home or saddest of all have no home to return to.

If such persons are among your acquaintances, you'll enrich your Christmas by remembering them when you're giving out your holiday invitations.

We hope that this Christmas is joyful for you and your loved ones. We hope that it is materially full of course; but much more, we wish you the kind of happiness that no one can take from you because it is inside of you.

We hope you are home for Christmas. See you next week.
