Ottawa, October 1, 1914.

Rev. Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 24th ultimo, in which you state that you had forwarded applications for the admission of a number of children to the Spanish River Industrial School to Agents Logan, Duncan, Baxter, McNeill and Hagan.

In reply I beg to inform you that with the exception of the application which you sent Agent Hagan for the admission of Agnes Segassige, which has been approved, none of the other applications have yet reached the Department. These agents are being instructed to forward all applications which they have on hand for the admission of pupils to your school to the Department at once.

Your obedient servant
