

& Sgt Hawley came out & had a conversation with the accused and the accused walked into the guard room & we locked him up in a cell.

Cross Exam:

I took the accused from the front. We stumbled & he swung his hand around & he hit or grazed my face. I do not know that he intentionally hit me in the face with his fist. The witness is read over to the witness.

Fourth Witness for the prosecution:

C-66510 Sgt Hawley E. C. 4 C184 sworn States:

On Oct 24, 43 I was Present Sgt 4 C184. I recognize the accused as the subject. I was at the Guard Room at about 1700 hours 25 Oct 43. P6 banders came in & as a result of a conversation with him I ordered the R. B. outside & I went to the door. At that time I saw Lt Cpl McConville was struggling with the accused. The accused made a pass with his fist & struck Lt Cpl McConville on the side of the face. The accused broke away & backed up against the wall of a building opposite the entrance to the guard room. He took up a fighting pose & defied anyone to take him in to the guard room. Three or four minutes later he walked into the guard room on his own. Presumably he was in a high tension. It looked like a blow and not an
