

SAVED.

LESSON 115.

Study the story suggested by this picture. Where are the dog and the child? Why is the dog panting? Study the hero-dog, how he looks, what he has done, is doing, what he seems to say.

1. Let various pupils tell how the little boy came to fall into the sea.

2. Let other pupils tell what happened after that.

Secure as many details as you can to add to the interest of the story.

3. Review the full story, covering all the details.

4. Have you a pet dog? Tell how he looks. Describe him so that we should recognise him, if we saw him.

5. How should we take care of a dog? What does he need? How should we treat him? Tell anything you know about the devotion or sagacity of a dog. How are dogs useful to man?

7. Write the story that this picture tells.
