

- Toombs, Robert, and New South, 192
- Tourgée, A. W., 2; Appeal to Cæsar, 131
- Tuskegee Institute, 174, 177, 178; statistics on lynching, 154 (note)
- Vance, Z. B., of North Carolina, 13, 43; and teaching of pedagogy, 174-75
- Vanderbilt University, 188
- Vaidaman, James K., of Mississippi, 150
- Virginia, differing economic conditions, 6; cotton mills, 98; knitting industry, 98; iron industry, 101; mines, 102; tobacco production, 103; school fund (1810), 157-58 (note); surplus of wheat (1917), 199; Catholics in, 214; repudiation of debt, 231-32
- Wages, in cotton mills, 109, 110, 113; in tobacco factories, 126
- Washington, Booker T., cited, 143; "intellectuals" enemies of, 146; and Tuskegee, 177
- Washington (D. C.), Howard University, 179
- Watson, T. E., 44
- Watterson, Henry, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, 223
- West Virginia, as Southern State, 5; Grange in, 32; iron industry, 101; bituminous coal, 102; mines, 102; free from lynchings, 154-55; Catholics in, 214; Virginia assigns debt to (1871), 231; settlement of controversy, 232-33
- Wheat, winter, 63-64; roller mills, 104
- Whig party dislikes name Democrat, 12
- Wiley, C. H., superintendent of education in North Carolina, 159
- Wilmington (N. C.), uprising of whites in, 45
- Wilson, Woodrow, North Carolina vote (1916), 57
- Winston-Salem (N. C.), tobacco industry, 103
- Winthrop, R. C., of Massachusetts, and Peabody Fund, 167
- Women, in mills, 97; suffrage, 202, 213; position in South, 208-10; and Great War, 211-12; independence, 213; and churches, 213-14
- Young, T. M., The American Cotton Industry, quoted, 112