

or friends; and that those who have yet to make a start, will be moved to do so by the example of those who (perhaps not as well able as they) have met our appeal with a hearty and prompt response.

A great many whose names are here recorded as Perpetual Members are continuing above the specified amount on behalf of relatives or friends. These donations will be duly acknowledged under the name of the relative or friend as soon as the requisite sum is attained.

For any mistake that has crept into our printed list despite painstaking endeavors to have all correct, we beg a kindly indulgence.

May God bless our generous contributors, their homes and families, and give of His abundant supernatural graces to those who so willingly shared their earthly goods that He Whom they adore and love as God might have a Tabernacle amongst men becoming in every way the dignity of His Sacramental Presence.

Very gratefully yours,
