

top, ahead of Brigham Radiant, Graham & Renfrew's entry, a placing that was somewhat of a surprise. Blanche Surprise, shown by Bow & Son, was third, with Norbury Chieftain and Cedar Conquest, imp., by Hazard, in fourth and fifth places respectively. King's Chocolate was further honoured with the championship. In yearlings Adamston Nugget George A. Bennett & Son's entry was first, Royal Connacht, a Claremont entry, second, and Brigham Lord, shown by T. D. Elliott, won third.

Saxon's Queen, the Bedford Park entry, was winner in the mare class, with Mist of Weyon, shown by T. A. Cox, Brantford, Ont., second. The standard breeds had about the usual number on exhibition in the aged class which were also good representatives of the breed. Miss K. L. Wilkes, two entries, viz., Nograssia and Bingen Pilot, were placed first and third. Orley A., exhibited by Crow & Murray-Toronto, winning 2nd, King's Gambit, shown by J. A. McKenzie, Presque Isle, Ont., being fourth, and Joseph Swartz's, Toronto, Fritz Bingen filly. Nograssia also winning the championship.

Peter Wilton and Sam Bernard, from the Galt stables, won first and second in the class under three years.

Dora Chimes, from the Galt stables was the sole entry in the female class.

THE THOROUGHBREDS

Thoroughbreds were out in rather limited numbers, but with very good quality. Crow & Murray's Cricklade 308, and Messrs. Barbers' (Toronto), Kapana, were the only entries in the aged class, and were placed in the order named.

For horses most suitable to produce saddle and hunting horses, Halfing, owned by Peterson Bros., East Toronto, was placed first; Procession, owned by Robert McKay, Doncaster, second; and Yorlomo owned by Sellers & Hall, Toronto, third.

Stallions under three years old: St. Bassett, exhibited by Jas. Bovaird, of Brampton, Ont., won first, also the championship best stallion, any age. Braggadocio, shown by Chas. E. Ray, Toronto, was second; New Guide, Power Bros. Toronto horse, was third, and Stone King, same owner, was fourth.

Ponies were out in goodly numbers, largely of the Hackney order, and made a very interesting show. While they may not be of great interest to our readers they are gradually being scattered throughout our land as a convenience for women and children, and our report would not be complete without making mention of Plymouth Horace, winner of first, and champion, shown by Graham & Renfrew Coy. This is a pure bred Hackney, and a full brother to the champion mare of the Olympia, in 1907, and is one of the most perfect ponies both in conformation and action, that anyone could wish to see. Royal Review, shown by T. H. Hazard, is another well worthy of mention, being second to Plymouth Horace.

Barkely Elegance, shown by T. A. Cox, Brantford, won first, and champion, in the pony mare class. She also is a Hackney of no mean standing. Minnie, shown by W. E. Mead, Norway, won second place, and Julia Marjorie, Aitchison's pony, won third. Shetland stallions were shown by Frank Gillies, Toronto, F. Du V. Elliott, Toronto, and Reg. D. Mead, Seabrook Junction, who won in the order named. Mares were shown by
