A New Book by the Author of "Ben Hur."

THE
Prince of India,

OR
WHY CONSTANTINOPLE FELL.

GENERAL LEW. WALLACE,
2 Vols., Cloth, - - - Price, $2.50

This book is indeed a monumental work. While the style is crisp and nervous, there is no superficial lightness about it. The spark and savour of those old Byzantine times are tersely reproduced. There are some remarkably vivid and dramatic descriptions. . . . One chapter in the book, entitled Racing with a Storm, is even a better piece of description than The Chariot Race in "Ben Hur," and will without doubt become a favorite piece with our leading electionists. . . . Unquestionably this is a greater book than "Ben Hur."—Toronto Star.

For sale by all booksellers, or will be sent to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price.

So far this fall we have been favored with unusually fine weather, and in the nature of things we must expect some rough weather shortly to even things up.
While we are thankful for the fine days we are having, we should not forget that winter is fast approaching and preparations are in order.
Dineen's great October sale affords just the opportunity you need. Hats and furs, the newest styles and of the best material and workmanship, are offered at marvellously low prices.
You'd be surprised to see the rushing trade
that's being done at the big store on the corner of King and Yonge streets during these October days. Crowds attend every day, and the stock of fine hats is being greatly reduced.
The productions of all the world's best hat manufacturers are in Dineen's stock, and you'll have no difficulty in selecting a suitable headcovering.
Store open till 10:30 at night.
