Total Abstinence and Mortality

In 1915 the mortality experienced in our Abstainers' Section was but 42% of the expected, compared with 66% in the General Section. This is but a repetition of the extremely favorable death rate experienced in our Abstainers' Section year after year, demonstrating the longevity of the Abstainer over the Moderate Drinker. The benefits of this Section are for you, if you are an abstainer. Why not ascertain the special advantages we have to offer before placing your insurance? A copy of our booklet "Total Abstainers vs. Moderate Drinkers" will be gladly mailed on request.

"I have read the series of booklets, including 'THE GREATEST OF ALL MISTAKES,' and 'THE SUPREME MOMENT OF A LIFETIME.' Very many hearts will thank you for writing them, and I pray for them a wide circulation, with the blessing of God upon it. . . . God speed your words."

The greatly needed note of spiritual warning is struck in them all, but with a tenderness and insight which is beyond my praise. The Lord Bishop of Durham, Auckland Castle.

"I have read the small Books with great interest, and consider them fully adapted for the Officers and men of the Army. The anecdotes woven into the text with great skill, leading the reader to the vital problems, so ably dealt with, and so necessary for consideration and thought." Field-Marshal Lord Grenfell, G.C.M.G.

"I have read your six booklets. They are clear, sympathetic, arresting, and thoroughly Scriptural, and are excellently printed and got up.

They will attract, interest, and I trust help many who would not read an ordinary tract." The Lord Bishop of Liverpool, Liverpool.

"These little booklets should be a great help to all young Officers in both Services, who, in their efforts to serve their King and Country, and if necessary to die for them, would always be reminded of the great sacrifice made once for all, not for a worthy cause, but for undeserving sinners.

The booklets themselves are admirable in all ways." Admiral Sir Edmund H. Fremantle, London.

"I know your sincere devotion to Spiritual work; it comes out on every page of your little books, and I am sure the appeal, both by way of warning and encouragement, will do much good." The Lord Bishop of Southwark, London.

"Your Booklets are capital, and will do good." The Rev. The Hon. Edward Lyttelton, Headmaster of Eton, Eton.

"The six little Booklets are as attractive in their matter as they are in their exterior; and put the Eternal Truth in a very simple and definite way. I trust they will be of much value to many in this time of need." Maj.-Gen. Sir George K. Scott-Walker, Guildford.
