This Week's War News

Organized Farmers Attack Ocean Combine -- Lower Ocean Rates Demanded -- Why Wheat is Cheaper

The day has now arrived when it is absolutely necessary for all our readers to stand by us loyally in our fight for the right and better times. We are facing a new menace in the Ocean Combine. Canadian farmers have lost no less than $9,000,000 on a crop of 200,000,000 bushels during the past year owing to the increase in ocean rates. It is costing the farmer $45 to $60 more to have a carload of wheat carried to the British market than it did two years ago.

What Does This Prove?

Doesn't this state of affairs prove to you that the need for a paper to see that the farmers get justice after their crops are harvested and ready for market is now more apparent than ever? By united and concentrated action at this time the farmers can show the Ocean Combine that they mean business. Boost The Guide all along the line. Send in your renewal today without waiting for a notice to renew. Help us in our fight for justice and a better price for your wheat and we will be sure to win.
