

Orange Hill.

Mr. Sam'l Howard sold 12 stock steers to Mr. Alex. Montgomery this week for which he was paid $500. They are fine animals.

Mr. S. W. Laird has given up the Springbank cheese factory and thinks of going into the livery business in Brussels. The factory will this season be under the charge of Mr. S. Howard, who is an excellent and experienced cheese-maker.

Mrs. Wiggins, who has been quite ill the past two or three weeks, has recovered and is now able to be out again.

Mrs. Murdoch, of Shipley, paid a visit to her mother, Mrs. Hoffman, last week.

Mr. Edw. Ferguson has most of the material on the ground for a fine large stone residence which he intends erecting this season.

Lakelet.

It is our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. C. Horton, which occurred in this village on Monday morning last after only a few hours illness. She was a daughter of Mr. Cook, of Lakelet, and had a large number of friends who are in sorrow over her sudden taking off. The husband and the two motherless babes have the profound sympathy of all.

On Monday last, Mr. Samuel Nay, ex-Deputy Reeve, met with a serious accident which will lay him up for some time to come. He was assisting to place the binding-pole on a load of hay when it broke precipitating him hard to the floor. The fall was a heavy one and he sustained serious bruises besides having both his arms broken at the wrists. His many friends hope no permanent injury has been sustained and that he will soon be about in his usual health again.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Mahood who is confined to the house with inflammation. We hope to be able to report his speedy convalescence.

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wright, of Gorrie, conducted the funeral services of the late Mrs. Horton, yesterday. The funeral was a large one, the church being packed full.

Huntingfield.

Mr. John Halliday, our local cattle dealer made a shipment of fat cattle to the old country market last Monday consisting of one hundred head. They are in charge of Mr. Wm. Halliday and are one of the finest lot of cattle ever delivered by the lot of this neighborhood. He will follow with another hundred in a few weeks.

Last week there died in Carrick a young son of Mr. Wm. Lush. He had been ailing for over a year till at length the disease developed into dropsy, several doctors failing to effect a cure. The boy was five years of age.

Our school yard fence has been repaired in a very neat manner by one of our popular mechanics. This, together with the shade trees planted on arbour day, improves the appearance of the place very much.

A new fence has been erected along the front of the Madill residence. The artistic and substantial manner in which it is put up shows the builder to be a man of no ordinary ability and intelligence.

There are a couple of boards blown off the church sheds in a recent wind storm. If they were replaced our town would be ready for its civic holiday.
