EVERETT, Wash, March 2.-The dead in the Wellington avalanche, based on a list of dead and missing given out tonight by officers of the Great Northern R. R., may reach a total of eighty-four before the rescuers reach the bottom of the mass of snow and wreckage that crushed two trains into a deep guich. While only eight passengers and nine railroad employes are known to be dead, 38 passengers and 29 employes of the road are miss-ing. Railroad men think few of the missing will be recovered alive if they are buried under the snow. Capt. F. W. L. Moore, the recently appointed district staff adjutant for No. 8 military district, in succession to No. 3 military district, in succession to Col. Oglivie, is in the city preparing to take up his new duties. A New Brunswicker by birth, he has had a varied and interesting career size, tak-ing up the military profession. He served in South Africa during the Boer war and remained there until last year. In conversation with the Star today he gave some of his impressions of the present situation in South Af-rica and the trend of affairs in the new federation.

federation. Capt. Moore was born at Chatham, N. B., but his family afterward moved to Charlottetown, B. E. I., and he re-ceived his education there, graduating from Prince of Wales College. While practicing law there he was deeply interested in military matters, and for ten years served as captain in the fourth P. E. I. regiment of garri-son artillery. At the outbreak of the South African war he applied for a commission in the first contingent, but as there was no vacancy he accepted department has taken no steps to make repairs.
