

from Toronto and the 56th Infantry Battalions from Calgary and Saskatoon. Private messages to this effect were also received by Mr. W. G. Gooderham, President of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company, and Mr. L. H. Howard, 131 Madison avenue. These battalions crossed the Atlantic on the C. P. R. liner Empress of Britain, which sailed from Halifax on Thursday afternoon, March 30, at 9 o'clock. The message received by Mayor Church indicated that the voyage was not without its exciting features; in fact, it stated that the troopship on approaching Britain had encountered submarine trouble.

The Diamond From the Sky

By ROY L. MCCARDELL

Copyright, 1914, by Roy L. McCardell

Clambering upon the loose pile of bricks that gives beneath his heavy feet, Luke scrambles to the top of the wall and by some miracle passes over the broken glass and spikes unscathed and drops down the sheer twenty feet of the prison wall to liberty.

Quabba is waiting on the bridge. From a bag on the piano cart he hastily draws the panting Luke an old coat, trousers and a hat that has a wig within it.

A Heavy Blow Descended!

Under the tonic influence of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills all traces of nervous weakness disappear together with the headaches, the insomnia, the feeling of intense weakness and depression of spirits that mark the victim of nervous ailments. Here is the proof. Mr. Henry Marr, Port Felix, N. S., says: "I give the greatest pleasure to testify as to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I began their use I was a physical wreck; my nerves were all unstrung, I suffered from frequent headaches and backaches, and was almost wholly unfitted for work. I had tried several remedies without success, when I finally decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. I took six boxes and they made me a well man."

John Powell has returned from his automobile trip. He has seen the Garden of the Gods. But the trip and the scenery have not restored him. Truly he is a mad millionaire. In fever delirium he has a dream. Before him floats, with a sad smile, Esther in vestal robes. He reaches to touch her, but she floats away and looks back and sadly smiles. He dreams he follows on foot and in his speediest car—a race of madness. Down great mountains, up and over, and then halting in the wild, weird ruggedness of the great rocks in the Garden of the Gods. So he pursues the fair phantom to the abyss edge of a giddy precipice. He clutches for her ere she falls and falls himself—down, down. And then with a dull shock he finds himself awake, fallen over the table where he has slept, his hands upon his arms.

In the Cafe La Bella Napoli the so charming Signora Lancia, the eyes of her hostess and outers the heart of her daughter, the ravishing Rosa, with the desire for the diamond. And then from the softly opened door behind them the sudden blow descends. The lamp is smashed, the room is plunged in darkness.

Overwork and worry have an evil effect on the system and often give rise to nervousness and sleeplessness. Other signs include a weak back, headaches and indigestion. In time if matters are neglected a complete breakdown of the nervous system follows. On every hand one can observe victims of this state of nervous exhaustion who are at a loss to know what to do with themselves, their nervous debilitated state having baffled all ordinary treatment.
