East Flamboro Council Meeting

The East Flamboro Council met in the Township Hall, Waterdown, on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, Reeve and Councillors all present.

The minutes of last meeting were read, and the Clerk was instructed to make the following corrections, namely: That Bell Bros. were residents of Nelson Township, and G. O. Filman should read G. D. Filman, and M. J. Crane's account should include "for road work." After these corrections were made the minutes were adopted.

Communications were received from the Navy League of Canada, and from the Organization of Resources Committee. No action was taken on these communications.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Hamilton-Guelph-Owen Sound Good Roads Association, giving a report of the engineer on the above road conditions.

The Clerk reported that he had succeeded in having more insurance, to the amount of $2,000.00, placed upon the hall and contents, at a cost of $22.00. He was instructed to send in a bill for this amount to the Public School Board.

A communication was received from the Hydro Electric Power Commission containing copies of the agreement between the Township, the Village of Waterdown, and the Commission.

GEORGE CHURCH, Clerk.

Why Not?

"Twas in her darkest hours,
When the maid was in despair,
Her lover sent her flowers,
And the flowers sent the air."

In a Liberal Mood.

"The judge was very nice."
"Yes?"

"Gave me a divorce, permission to marry again, and intimated that if I didn't do better than I did the first time he'd grant me another divorce."

Gassed.

The perfume of the wildwood flower
Expands across the scene,
And then is wholly smothered by
The scent of gasoline.

A Sleepy Humorist.

Mrs. Timmid—John, wake up!
There's a man downstairs; I'm sure I heard a noise that sounded like a yawn.

Husband—Oh, go to sleep. What you heard was probably the rubber plant stretching itself."

His Real Worth.

"Did you see the widow of our late friend?"

"Yes, but when I told her I had called to extend my condolences, she asked my congratulations instead. She had just received his insurance money."

Sad but True.

Mrs. Hickson—Some men are so peculiar.

Mr. Huson—How so?

Mrs. Hickson—They would rather lose $30 playing poker than give their wives $10 for a new hat.

Their Way.

"Average juries remind me of a self-cocking revolver."

"In what way?"

"They go off as soon as they're charged, but nobody knows what they're going to hit."

A Giant Power Light.

The giant 50,000,000-candle power light installed at Niagara Falls is one of the largest in the world and makes of its vicinity an exceedingly brilliant spot, but it has been demonstrated that it would take 32,500,000,000,000 of them to do the illuminating work of the sun. The figures are not guesses, but scientific calculations based on long and elaborate experiments.

Change.

Ruth is an alchemist I know,
And so I'll have to drop her,
For every time I'm out with her
My silver turns to copper.

In These Days.

It's as useless as the fifth wheel to a team.
A man's wife is out of date. All automobiles carry an extra tire."

BANKS WILL LEND.

In order to help out small subscribers to the Victory Loan the banks will lend subscribers, on the probable certainty of repayment within a year, up to 90 per cent. of the amount of the investment in the Loan. The rate of interest charged by the banks is 5 1/2 per cent. Repayment is to be made monthly and quarterly. These are much better terms than were granted last year.

There are over 425,000 Canadians overseas who will have to be kept for at least a year, even if peace were to come this month.

No one who looks at the casualty lists can do otherwise than subscribe every dollar possible to the Victory Loan.

The Canadians in France have set a high standard for those at home to reach in the Victory Loan campaign. Canada must put every ounce of effort into the Victory Loan drive.

Oversubscribing to the Victory Loan would have a wonderful effect on the Canadian Corps in France. It would be the best thing that Canada could possibly do.

SCRAPS of HUMOR

Explained at Last.

Mr. Flatbush—Why in the world does a woman always get off a street car the wrong way.

Mrs. Flatbush—She doesn't. "Of course she does. Instead of facing the way the car is going, she faces the other way."

"That's because the conductor takes her beyond the street she wants to get off at, and of course she wants to face the way she's going."

More Imposition.

"Mrs. Diggs is going to read an important paper before her literary club."

"Ah! In that case, Professor Diggs will have to drop his scientific investigations for a while."

"He won't be compelled to hear her read it, will he?"

"No, but he'll probably have to write it."

Probably.

The old colored man had climbed into the dentist's chair.

"Shall I give you laughing-gas, uncle?" queried the tooth doctor.

"Not till the toof am out, boss," replied the old man. "Reckon mebbe Ah'll feel mo' lak laffin' den."

Vernacular.

"Why did you discharge your cook?"

"She said she wouldn't be reprimanded."

"Did she express herself to that effect?"

"Yes, but what she really said was, 'I won't take no sass offen nobody.'"

GOOD REASON, TOO!

It happened at a Red Cross tea held at a country club. The fussy old gentleman of the white vest tapped the tweed-clad youngster on the shoulder. "My boy," he said, "why are you not in the army?"

The boy smiled. "To be frank with you, sir," he said, "I don't like it. There's all this business of sleeping in the mud, and uncooked food, and rain all the time—dashed uncomfortable, you know."

"Uncomfortable!" The white vest-front heaved indignantly. "Are you not of age, in good health or physically fit?"

"Yes—sound as a drum. Just twenty-two, no dependents." The young man was still cheerful. The inevitable group gathered about them.

"Disgusting! Have you no patriotism—no love of country? What is your reason for not being in the army? Confess, coward!"

"I can't be," said the cheerful youth. "I'm in the navy. Eighteen hours' leave and special permission to wear 'civies.'"

Cares for It.

"And do you care for the theater, Mrs. Murphy?"

"Sure, I do not. My husband does that."

"Does what?"

"Cares for the theater! He's the janitor!"

RIGHT IN IT.

"Virginia is consistent in everything, isn't she?"

"What now?"

"Why, her new mermaid gown is to be made of watered silk."
