Canada's New Coat of Arms

Every home in Canada, every Canadian school boy and girl should know the new Canadian Coat of Arms. It is a beautiful plate and should occupy a prominent place in all true Canadian homes. The people of Canada are indebted to the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal for reproducing the new Coat of Arms in all its true heraldic colors and presenting a copy, 14 x 17 inches, to all readers of that great paper.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star is Canada's greatest family and farm paper and is known throughout the whole Dominion. It is a wonderful value and provides every member of the family with clean, wholesome, instructive reading. It is a great money saver for the farmers of Canada and repays the subscription price one hundred fold each year.
Canada is proud of the big weekly.
It has no superior the world over and is improving year after year. It costs only two dollars a year and each reader for 1922 will receive free a copy of the "Coat of Arms."

High School

Literary Society

A meeting of the newly formed Literary Society was held on Nov.
18th 1921 with the President, Herbert Slater presiding.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the organization meeting an interesting program was given by a number of students as follows:
Music by the High School Orchestra, violin solo by N. Langton, and a duet by Misses M. and E. Everitt.
Splendid readings were given by Miss R. Flatt and Miss L. Gunby which caused much laughter. Minute speeches followed by K. McGregor, C. Crasoe, F. Smith, A. Thompson, Miss Doris Leake and R. Allen.
The Journal was then read by Miss L. Richards and was welcomed by everyone.

Mr. Spencer acted as Critic for the meeting. He congratulated everyone who assisted in the program and wished us the best of success in our future meetings.

The meeting came to a close by singing the National Anthem.

W. C. Attridge Sec.

To the Editor:—

Will you kindly inform me in your valuable paper when the W. A.
A. A. is going to call a meeting to straighten up business for the time being and commence operations for Winter Sports which should be started immediately.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY

In speaking of another's faults
Pray don't forget your own.
Remember, those with homes of glass
Should never throw a stone.
If we have nothing else to do
But talk of those who sin,
'Tis better we commence at home,
And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man
Until he's fairly tried;
Should we not like his company,
We know the world is wide,
Some may have faults—and who has not—
The old as well as young,
Perhaps we may for aught we know,
Have fifty to their one.

I'll tell you of a better plan,
And find it works quite well;
To try my own defects to cure
Before of others tell;
And though I sometimes hope to be No worse than some I know My own shortcomings bid me let
The faults of others go.

Then let us all when we commence
To slander friend or foe
Think of the harm one word may do
To those we little know.
Remember, curses, sometimes like
Our chickens, "roost at home."
Don't speak of others' faults until
We have none of our own.

PEG AWAY!

Success may be long in coming,
But come it surely will,
To those who grind on steadily
At Perseverance Mill!

Peg away, my lad, peg away,
If you the prize would win;
The only poor faint-hearted chaps
Who talk of giving in.

Peg away, my lad, at your games,
Don't think they're not for you;
Consider the deeds of others,
And show what you can do.

Should the task, or game, seem lost,
Don't admit that you are "done,"
But play it out to the end, lad,
That's how Success is won!

Yes, peg away, all through your life,
Let that your motto be;
For steady, honest effort's bound
To bring the Victory!

WHY BUY AT HOME?

Because my interests are here.
Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in.

Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.
Because I want to see the goods I am buying.

Because I want to get what I buy when I pay for them.

Because my home merchants will take care of me when I run short of cash.

Because some part of every dollar I spend at home helps work for the welfare of the town and the county.

Because the home merchant I buy from stands back of his goods, thus always giving value received.

Because the merchant I buy from pays his share of the county and town taxes.

Because the merchant I buy from helps support our poor and needy, our schools, our churches, our lodge rooms and homes.

Because if ill luck, misfortune or bereavement comes, the merchant I buy from is here with his kindly expression of greeting, his words of cheer, and, if needed, his pocketbook.

Let us make this town a good place in which to work and live. It's easy and certain if everyone will do his share.

The dollar spent away seldom returns, while the money spent at home is apt to leave a scrapling at your door.
