The present interior stairway will be used, access to which will be gained through a side entrance to be opened at the foot of the stairs.

Dr. Cadieux, a prohibition lecturer, delivered one of his popular addresses to a large audience in the Methodist church on Thursday evening last.

With chemicals he showed the action of alcohol on the human system, and secured and retained the close attention of his audience. The many students present the lecture constituted a fine lesson in practical chemistry, and was generally regarded by all as being very entertaining as well as highly instructive.

The Post-office Department of Ottawa has determined to put a stop to the practice which evidently prevails in certain sections of the country by people attempting to use postage stamps a second time.

Some time ago a conviction was secured in the county of Bruce, and this was followed last week by a conviction at Kingston. Several cases are under consideration in which there is evidence of parties having attempted to use old stamps by obliteration of the cancellation mark.

A peculiarly sad death occurred at Plum Hollow on the morning of Sunday, May 21st, by which Mrs. Hulse was deprived of her daughter Laura, in the 9th year of her age.

The little girl had scratched her finger slightly, and for some cause (supposed to have been the spilling of aniline ink into the wound) blood poisoning resulted.

Dr. S. S. Cornell attended the little sufferer and everything possible was done to check the spread of the virus, but without avail.

The funeral took place on the following Monday morning at 2 p. m. at the Baptist church, Plum Hollow, and was conducted by Rev. T. J. Murdoch. A very large number of neighbors and friends testified their deep sympathy with the grief-stricken family by attending the obsequies.
