THE PAINT ROOFING

has grown steadily in public favor, and is no place more popular than where it was first used. It is a sure and positive cure for leaks in a tin or iron roof, and as a preservative of wood it has no equal. Write for particulars and prices.

We have scores of testimonials as to its merits.

We do iron, cement, and gravel roofing and guarantee good work in every case.

We sell our paint by the gallon or barrel, or will contract to paint your roof or any woodwork liable to decay.

If you want a new roof or an old one repaired, let us hear from you.

It is being rumoured around that we are about to lose our popular young mail-carrier. He intends purchasing a farm and settling down.

Miss Burns, of Watertown, was the guest of Miss Bertha Flood last week.

Ran a Nail Through His Hand

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

DAYTOWN

Corn cutting and threshing is the order of the day.

Mrs. Eli Wood, daughter, son-in-law and grand-daughter have gone to Rome, N. Y., to visit her son, J. H. Wood.

George Huffman is camping, fishing and hunting on upper Delta Lake.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wood, at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, their daughter, Mrs. Zaides Jones and Mr. Frank Eaton, of Frankville, were united in holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Mr. Garrett, Baptist minister, of Delta. The bride was attired in a grey cloth skirt, trimmed with drab satin, and white silk waist, trimmed with white silk lace. Only the immediate friends were present. They have gone to Rome, N. Y. to visit the bride's brother.

Mr. Arthur Irwin is erecting a new barn.

Mr. Ransom Wood has returned to his home after visiting his aged Mrs. Emily Wood, and his brother, Mr. Eli Wood.

Mr. Vet Stevens had a cow choke to death eating apples on Saturday evening.

Upper Delta Lake is alive with hunters.

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to act, always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by J. P. Lamb & Son.

—Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested. "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

DELTA

There was a grand Thanksgiving service held in the Methodist church on Sunday last. Rev. G. H. Williams preached a Thanksgiving sermon—text, Psalms 116, verse 12—which was well appreciated by all who heard. The pulpit was nicely decorated with flowers and grain, the walls and windows showing sheaves of grain. The service was well attended.

H. S. Mott, the science master of Newburgh, spent Thanksgiving with J. A. Bell.

W. A. Hanton, the teller at the Merchants Bank here, has been transferred to the branch at Souris, Manitoba. His successor is Mr. Alwyn Forneri, of Gananogue. We regret to lose Wallace but wish him success in Manitoba.

R. A. Whitney, the popular manager of the bank, returned after spending a holiday in Belleville. During his absence, H. D. Lewis, of Athens, came to Delta to manage the bank.

H. D. Knox, the popular commercial traveller, Beachburg, representing Henry Skinner & Co., of Kingston, spent a holiday with his old friends here last week.

Mrs. Frank Bolin, of Lyn, is at present visiting Mrs. Geo. Morris.

Miss Ruby Stevens went to Newboro to visit her relatives.

Walter Beatty, M.P.P., and Geo. Sawyer returned home from New Ontario where they have been surveying.

The South Leeds Agricultural Society met in the secretary's store for the transaction of business last Saturday.

Miss Victoria M. Bell, the popular assistant teacher of Portland school, spent Thanksgiving holidays with her parents. We were glad to hear that she is doing well at teaching.

This is What They Say

Those who take Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, eruptions, catarrh, rheumatism or dyspepsia, say it cures promptly and permanently, even after all other preparations fail. You may take this medicine with the utmost confidence that it will do you good. What it has done for others you have every reason to believe it will do for you.

Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c

An Old English Inn.

The Raven Inn, an old hostelry at Hook, near Basingstoke, England, was built in 1653 and still retains its quaint old half timbered work, overhanging gables and small windows. The house gained a wide notoriety in the latter part of the eighteenth century during the American war of independence through being the residence and place of capture of the famous "Jack the Painter," who roused the whole country in 1776 by his deliberate attempts to fire dry docks and shipping. He succeeded at Portsmouth, where $300,000 damage was done; also at Bristol, but was foiled at Plymouth. So great was the scare that in response to a reward of $2,500 offered by the government for his capture the whole country was on the alert, and he was run to earth and captured in this interesting old house and eventually hanged and gibbeted at Portsmouth. His real name was James Aitken.

Von Moltke on Whist.

A German magazine published the subjoined anecdote about Moltke: "Did you, your excellency, play whist when you were in France?" asked Herr von Bennigsen of the great battle thinker one evening over a rubber. "Every day, when it was possible," replied Moltke. "We played half farthing points, so that at worst the players could not lose more than a shilling." One day Count Berthous was his partner. "Why, my dear count, did you play spades?" said Moltke, in a sharp and serious tone. "I had an idea, your excellency, that you wanted spades." "But my dear count, one does not play whist according to ideas, but according to rule," replied the field marshal, shaking his head.

In keeping with the progress of the age, CANADA'S GREAT NATIONAL HOME NEWSPAPER, THE WEEKLY GLOBE, will be very materially improved for 1904. Numerous important changes are in contemplation, but the leading feature will be the introduction of an EIGHT-PAGE ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT ON CALENDERED PAPER.
