Both of these men were important officers and held positions of trust. We are not told how they offended. 2. Was wroth—Oriental despots held in their hands the power of life and death, and their subjects were liable at any moment to be sacrificed. These officers would especially be subject to suspicion because of the ease with which they could poison the king's food. 3. House of the captain—That is, the house of Potiphar. Wherefore ... so sadly—Joseph spoke kindly to them; he, too, was a common sufferer with them, and understood their feelings. 8. No interpreter—One thing that troubled them was that they were met in a position to submit their dreams to the magicians of Egypt, who were supposed to be able to interpret dreams. But Joseph pointed them to his God as the one who could reveal difficult things. Tell me them—Thus had God at last ght Joseph prominently before officers. 9. 10. Winnipeg, Aphil 1.—A statemnt of claim was filed yesterday afternoon against P. II. McEwen, who is giving butler that Joseph obtained his wisdom not from man, but by revel-ation from above."—Bush.

3-19. Joseph said that in three days the king would restore the butler to his place. He then requested the butler to remember him and use his influence in them out of the basket. Joseph told him that in three days the king would hang him on a tree and the birds would eat got Joseph. It is supposed that Joseph had at this time been in prison one year, and he must wait "two full years" yet. before God's time would come for his release. Joseph knew the future of the butler and baker, but his own future was wisely hidden from his view. He must walk by faith and not by sight.

Thoughts.—There is both a dark and a bright side to our experiences. If Joseph had been looking for the dark side, he could have found it painted in strong lines—hatred, enslavement, unjust accusation, wrong treatment. But what were Joseph's comforts in the dungeon?

I. There was the Lord's presence change. conmentary.—I. Joseph cast into prison—(vs. 20-23). 20. Into the prison—tion of the official mansion, mostly subterranean, of which the roof or vault, rising immediately from the surface of the ground, was round, or shaped like an inverted bowl. In chapter xii, 14 it is inverted bowl. In chapter xii. 14 it is called "the dungeon." Such dungeons are still, under similar circumstances, used in the East.—Kitto. His imprisonment must have been very severe at first. In Psalm cv. 17, 18, we read that they hurt his feet with fetters; he was laid in iron But God greatly blessed him and it was not long before he had many favors shown him. Le was there—Joseph was in prison three years.

21. The Lord was with Joseph—"This is an example of the attention in the care of his fellow-prisoners (chap. xxxix. 22-40. 4). Work is not a misfortune, it is a blessing. 4 Another of Joseph's comforts in prison was his bell-ful spirit, his interest in others (chap. xi. 6-13. He was not absorbed in his own wrongs, though he had enough reason to be. 5. God's eye was upon him, and no weapon formed against him prospered. He always did right and made the best of everything. 22. Keeper of the prison—An inferior officer who was charged with the actual discipline of the prison—Hom. Com. Committed to Joseph's hand—We see here the real nature of human influence. It is not the influence of rank, but of character. Make all men equal in rank to-day, and to-morrow there will 2). There, in the prison where his expert, but God was with him? (Acts vii. 9). There, in the home of Potiphar, where he met and resisted the great them to the ruling of Egypt by several years of servitude. Stephen gives the rall years of servitude. Stephen gives and years of servitude. Stephen gives a proposition of the server of his life during these years when he says: "The patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt, but God was with him?" (Acts vii. 9). There, in the home of Potiphar, where he met and resisted the great years of servitude. Stephen gives a proposition of the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt, but God was with him?" (Acts vii. 9). There, in the bound of the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt, but God was with him?" (Acts vii. 9). There, influence. It is not the influence of rank, but of character. Make all men equal in rank to-day, and to-morrow there will be found those who have acquired influence over the others. These prisoners were all in the same position, but very soon Joseph's character had gained num influence.—Robertson.

23. Because the Lord, etc.—"The reason of his influence was the Cod within the composition of the influence was the Cod within the charge and grave suspicion, the Lord was with Joseph" (Gen. xxxix.

2). There, in the prison where his feet, were hurt with fetters, and his soul was bound with irons (Psa. cv. 18), and there seemed no possibility of the fulfillment of his dreams, "the Lord was with Joseph" (v. 21). Bunyan, shut in Bedford jail twelve years, wrote a book that was worth a thousand times more than son of his influence was the God within him. Just so far as a man is Christlike will he have influence." "Wisdom and Paul, with his feet in the stocks and the grit of the dungeon floor mixing with the blood of his unwashed stripes, sung a hymn of praise at midnight, for he knew that God was with him, and immediately there was an earthquake and the foundations of the prison were shaken. John the Revelator, banished to Patmos, where there were only a few fishermen's huts, did there the best work of his life.

Work of his life.

II. Joseph's integrity. "The keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners...... and...... looked not to anything" (vs. 22,23). Joseph's brothers stripped him of his coat; they could not strip im of his character; they said his body. they could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they said his body. The could not strip im of his character; they could not strip im of his character; they sold his body; they could not sell his soul. Through all the years of his dungeon life he stood firm in his integrity. He won the heart of the keeper, and, though placed there for being a secoundrel, he soon convinced the jailer that he was an innocent and trustworthy man, and, released from close confinement, he became a general superintendent of prison affairs. Wherever Joseph was placed he became the first mah, and is an illustration of the truth that infidel and worldling are compelled to honor in their hearts, though they may not eulogize with their lips, wed to-day.

This was of great advantage to him in view of what was before him. It gave him ample oportunity to become ac-sufferings, and manifested a kindly interest in their distress."

IV. Joseph's interpretation. "And Joseph said...this is the interpretation" (v. 12). "When Joseph knew that the prisoners were grieving occause there was no one to interpret their dreams, he suggested that, as interpretations belong to God and he communicates the reservant of the suggested that the communicates the reservant of the suggested that the property of the suggested that the suggested that the property of the suggested that the property of the suggested that the suggested th he suggested that, as interpretations of long to God and he communicates the power to whom he will, they tell him their dreams (vs. 7, 8). He thus is careful like Daniel (Dan. 2, 30) to transmit the glory to God. His interpretation foretold the chief butlers deliverance. TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Receipts of live stock at the city market, as rijorial by the railways, since last fruesday, were 00 car loads, composed of 786 cattle, 1401 hogs, 625 sheep and lambs, with about 100 veal calves.

The quality of fat cuttle was fair.

Trade was dull and draggy, with prices earler generally, as will be seen by sales quoted. Some dealers who held cattle over from Tuesday's market sold them for less money than was then offered. Milch cows and export bulls, as well as common fat cows, were away off in prices.

Exporters—No loads of axport cattle were offered and none apparently wanted. Export bulls were adrug on the market, selling from $3.50 to $4 per cut.

Brutchers—The demand for butchers' was not nearly as strong. Choice picked lots sold at $4.75 to $5 per cut.; loads of good, $4.60 to $4.85; fair to good cows at $4 to $4.35; fair to good cows at $4 to $4.35; fair co good cows at $6.00 for selects and $6.65 for lights and fats.

Feeders and stockers—Mr. Murby bought two car loads of stockers and feeders, as follows: Stockers, 700 to 900 lbs., $2.50 to $4.50 per cut. Bought and shipped one load butchers' to the north.

Milch cows—Trade in milkers and springers was dull, owing to the quality generally not being good, but more especially on account of there being no Montreal dealers on the market. Prices ranged from $30 to $55 per cot.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW.

Montreal: The way in which payments are being met is still the mactor of general interest here. As was stated a week ago payments have for some time been more or less dilatory, but some measure of improvement is noted. Those from the west are coming forward more freely and eastern returns also show a better tone. General trade conditions retain a heakby tone. The volume of retail trade is about normal, and wholesalers are busy sending out delayed spring goods and looking after what sorting orders are coming forward. In :!! lines of trade these sorting orders are fair. In the dry goods trade they are inclined to be a littillight. The slowness of manufacturers' deliveries continue to be a source of worry to the trade, and there is no sign of relief in sight. Deliveries of linens are particularly slow. It is reported certain lines cannot be delivered, although ordered now, until January, 1908. The entire hardware trade is active and nearly all lines are meeting with a heavy demand. Iron and steel is unusually active for this time of the year.

uary 1908. The entire bardware trade is active and nearly all lines are meeting with a heavy demand. Iron and steel is unusually active for this time of the year.

Toronto: The movement in all lines of retail and wholesale trade here is exceedingly heavy. The demand for spring goods is active. The sorting trade is quiet owing to the fact that placing orders have no been well filled, owing to the difficulties experienced in getting goods. Values in all lines are very firm. Collections, on the whole are now fair, but for some time they have been slow. Wholesalers here say those from Ontario have shown up botter than fremany other province. It is a fact, however, that ready money is in very great demand here, and that it is unusually scarce. Sugar is firm and canned goods continue to hold a strong position. Teas and coffees are activity in all lines, although considerable effect is still felt from the slowness of deliveries from the east. Toronto, April 1.—Foru Doctors of Divinity will be created by Knox Col-lege next Thursday evening in connection with the closing exercises of the present session. The gentlemen selected for this honor by the Senate of the college, are, Rev. R. E. Weish, M. A., of To-ronto, General Secretary of the Canadian

REV. J. G. SHEARER.

Bible Society, who is nominated for the chair of apologetics in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, who will be presented its superiority! It is treated by men and women who have tried it, as alto-gether different to ordinary prepara-tions. Doctors, hospital nurses, trainers, matrons of convalescent homes — all give Zam-Buk a good word; and better still, they use it. Zam-Buk is as good for muscular stiffness, sprains, rher tism and sciatica as it is for skin trou-bles. Baseball players and athletes in general find it invaluable. For spring an active demand. Country produce is still slow in coming forward and prices are firm.

COBALT NOTES.

The development work on the Little Nipissing and the Princess has proved very encouraging.

There is considerable talk at Cobalt about the discovery of two new veins on the Siller and the stores seil at 50c a box, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. 6 boxes for $2.50. Send le stamp for trial box.
