There Are Rumors

AGoin' around town that it is sometimes colder in the summer time than in the winter time. Those days seems to prove it so. Then there are roomers again around town wearin' our Men's Nobby $3 Goodyear Welted Shoes, and most of 'em say they fit and suit better'n any they ever wore. Now we want every roomer and every boarder in this neighborhood to come in and see what all these rumors are about, what we are continually advertising. We can make the acquaintance mutually profitable.

THE BY-LAW IS NOT GOOD

After Consideration Judge Houston Holds That the Commissioners' Enactment Will not Stand.

At the Police Court this morning Judge Houston dismissed the case against William Ball, charged under the Police Commissioners' by-law with buying junk from children. Mr. Lewis, counsel for Mr. Ball, contended that the by-law was bad because it restricted trade. The statute permitted the passage of by-laws governing trade, but not restricting it, and all such by-laws, in force in the city of Toronto had been quashed by the Supreme Court. After considering the case and the by-law under which the charge was laid, dismissed the case.

PROVED REAL
COSTLY JOKE

The Intensely Humorous Vein Which Sometimes Afflicts Mr. Humphries Cost him a Cold if it.

Judge Bell yesterday fined William Humphries $50 for stealing a pair of shoes from Chas. Simpkins, storekeeper at Bothwell. Humphries is a farmer near Bothwell. He owns 50 acres of land unencumbered and had dealt with Simpkins for 12 years. One Saturday night he put a pair of children's shoes in his basket. He claimed that he only did it as a joke, but the store-keeper couldn't see the humor of the action and had Humphries arrested. The farmer was committed for trial and, on his appearance before Judge Bell, pleaded guilty, but said he hadn't stolen the shoes but had merely taken them as a joke. Judge Bell said such a plea was one of not guilty and remanded the man for two weeks for trial, releasing him on bail. He appeared before the Judge yesterday, pleaded guilty unconditionally and was fined $50 for his joke.

Medium and wide
Graduates,
Ties,
narrow 4-in hands
Imperial flowing ends.

They're as gay as you please or as demure as you think proper. Tulip tints that smile in a man's toilet like bits of sartorial sunshine; quiet tones and neutrals that blend with the wearer's dress and personality, so that you no more remember his necktie than his boots; spots, stripes, fancies—everything—

Nearly 3000 of these Ties were on hand when we opened yesterday, but some styles are in little lots. Not many wide Graduates or 4 in hands. Just as well, anyhow, to come while the choice is freshest and best. Not a Tie in the collection was made to sell under 50c and the best ones are 75c goods. You'll likely want half a dozen.

A TRUE INDIAN TALE.

"Stranger than fiction" is "The True Story of Ketheth the Aleut" in McClure's for June. For it is a "true story," vouched for by the ex-attorney-general, Mr. Griggs. Ketheth the Swift was the idol of his Aleuthian tribesmen in Alaska. His most beloved comrade was Arlikoor the Silent, to avenge whose death Ketheth murdered two innocent white people, believing them guilty. Subsequently he was converted to Christianity by a visiting band of the Salvation army, and not only did he become an active worker in the band, but finally, of his own accord, he confessed his crime. At the trial, when asked by the judge the usual question, why sentence should not be pronounced according to law, Ketheth replied: "My brother, I have done my duty, now do yours." The examination of the case by the Attorney-General, his recommendation to President McKinley, and the President's action and interest to what, if fiction even, would be an entertaining story. It is due to Frank A. Vandierip, ex-assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and Harold Boice, that Ketheth's biography is now given to the country at large.

ST. THOMAS
Business COLLEGE

The growth of this institution during the last two years has been wonderful. The attendance has been doubled on account of the thorough course of training which we give. One of our young men is now drawing a salary of $1,200 a year; another $800; others from $400 to $500. Within the last month two of our students have gone direct from the College to positions paying $500 a year. WE QUALIFY OUR STUDENTS TO FILL THE BEST POSITIONS.

Young people are foolish to spend the best part of their lives learning Latin, French and the dead languages, when a few months spent in our Commercial or Shorthand Department will fit them to earn salaries like the above.

Eighty-seven per cent. of all our students who have written on the examinations of the Business Educators' Association of Canada this year have been successful.

SNARES FOR THE SIMPLE

WHAT the brand—"Joseph Rodgers, Sheffield,"—signifies on a knife blade, the slate frame brand of—"The Slater Shoe"—signifies on a shoe sole.

But don't confuse mere personal names with registered brands!

The advantage of a brand, depends entirely upon its record for merit, established by the years certain goods have been publicly tested under that brand.

And, when such a brand has become a passport to people's confidence, there creeps in a species of piracy, which trades upon that confidence, by the selling of unknown goods, at a long profit, under some name which sounds like that of the brand.

This is how heedless Consumers are snared, and sold, and laughed at.

No purchaser should accept a blind excuse from a Retailer for the absence of the advertised trade mark, and the presence of something which resembles it superficially, but is not it legally.

There are thousands of men named "Rodgers," but there is only one standard brand of "Rodger's Cutlery," as there is only one standard brand of "The Slater Shoe."

If these words—"The Slater Shoe," are not stamped on the sole in a slate frame, it is not a genuine "Slater Shoe," and you buy it at your own risk.

The Slater Shoe Co. do not stand behind any but their own make—the shoe with a five year record of fixed value and uniform quality.

When you get the slate frame brand of "The Slater Shoe," stamped on the soles with the Makers price, you get the responsible, Goodyear Welted article.
