once again the credit goes to Zam-Buk, the great herbel healer. Mr. H. Wright, of Inverness, Cape Breton, is the subject.
He says: "In August, 1902, whileheine sheved I sustained a cut on being shaved I sustained a cut on my face just under the left ear. I was then a sailor and on the being shaved I sustained a cut on my face just under the left ear. I was then a sailor and on the eve of a voyage. Soon after we sailed, blood poison set in and I found that sores were spreading all along the side of my head. The poison ran along like a creeping ivy plant under the skin and at intervals sending up an ulcer which discharged. I was soon in a terrible state! The steward, and everybody with a knowledge of the medicine chest, tried their best, but the ulcers and sores would not heal. I tried doctors in New Orleans where we first touched at—no cure. From thence to Hamburg, Germany—no cure. Then to North Shields, England—no cure. Back again to Canada, still suffering and trying all sorts of things in vain. Then back to Shields—no cure. Out again for Port Elads, but had to abandon the voyage through bad weather and put into London, Hingland. While there I was treated at the leading skin hospitals, but the sores did not close, no matter how treated From there I went to Cardiff, and while there a friend said, 'You can still be cured! Try Zam-Buk!' I hardly believed it possible, but I took a supply of Zam-Buk on board, as we were sailing for Canada that night. The sores were at that time so terribly painful that I could hardly bear to touch them. I ancinted them with Zam Buk and kept on applying it regularly. In a few days the sores showed signs of healing. Zam-Buk seemed to take out all the soreness and kill the poison. By the time we reached Montreal, to my amazement and delight, every one of the sores was closed. To-day my skin is sound and healthy. I am cured completely and I owe it to Zam-Buk. There is little wonder, therefore, that I am se enthusiastic in my praise of this great balm."

WHY IS ZAM-BUK SO POPULAR?

There are several reasons: Because it cures where ordinary ointments fail, as in the above case. Because of its unquestioned purity. Because of its herbal composition. Because it is free from all trace of animal oil or fat or mineral coloring. Because, while its application eases pain and soothes wounds and injuries, it is so highly antiseptic that it kills all disease germs instantly, thus preventing inflammation and suppuration.

WHAT IT CURES -- Zam-Buk cures pimples and face sores, eczema, ulcers, scalp sores, ringworms, abocesses, bad leg, chronic sores, piles, varicose ulcers, abrasions, cuts, scalds, buras, blood poison, itch, barbers rash and all other skin diseases. Rubbed over the chest it eases the tightness due to colds and chila, used as an embrocation cures rheumatism, neuralist, sto. LATE SPEAKER BURIED.

Funeral of Hon. Mr. St. John Attended by Many Thousands.

Toronto, April 11.—Hundreds of citizens who had been pleased to regard Hon. J. W. St. John as a personal friend, and thousands who knew of him and respected him, yesterday paid their last sad tribute to him.

Ten thousand persons, it was estimated, passed the casket as it lay in state in the Speaker's apartments at the Parliament Buildings yesterday morning. The apartments were draped in black, the portrait of the late Speaker hanging on the south wall. The fioral tributes were banked around the casket.

The chief mourners at the funeral were Mr. St. John's brothers. James and William Glover; his brothers-in law, Henry and John Glendinning, and their wives, Mr. St. John's sisters; Dr. Glendinning, bis nephew; W. J. Paulin, nephew, and Mr. St. John did not feel strong enough to lattend.

The Government was fully repre-

The Government was fully represented by Premier Whitney and the other Cabinet Ministers, and by the greater number of the members of the House. Premier Whitney and Hon. G. P. Graham marched side by side, as honorary pall-bearers.

Lieut.-Goverenor Mortimer Clark, Major Macdonald, A. D. C., and Major Fraser, secretary, also attended.

The final ceremonies of the Masonie ritual were conducted at the cemetery chapel, and were very impressive, the Doric Quartette taking the recitative and vocal parts.

The men will, accordingly, work on Sundays and relieve the blocks and delays which are occurring to the stock trains.

delays which are occurring to the stock trains.

This is against the provisions of the Lord's Day Act, and the Lord's Day Alliance will probably be moved to take action against the company. Probably this is what the railway companies are aiming at, as if an action results they can then apply for an investigation to inquire into the working of the new act as it applies to the railroads.

If the companies can show that the interests of shippers are menaced by the act, and that unnecessary suffering is caused to the cattle in these efforts to keep the Lord's Day holy, it may result in an amendment permitting the transportation of cattle on that day, with as much humanity and despatch as on a Wodin's day or Thor's day.

Lake District—10,000 Expected.
Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., April 11.—
During the past few days, according to a report brought here by a miner, three thousand men invaded the Larder Lake district, where gold ores rivaling the Cobalt silver ore, are claimed to have been found. More are coming every day, and teamsters are getting $60 a load for hauling supplies. The only building in the place has 12 bunks, and it is a hard problem to handle the rush.

One miner claims he was offered $400,000 for his claim by an American syndicate.

Stories of vast wealth in the hills started the biggest rush ever known in Canada. It is expected that 10,000 people will arrive during the next few weeks, hundreds coming from the United States.

Near Ingersoll—Brakeman Injured.
Ingersoll, Ont., April 11.—An accident which resulted in the instant death of A. W. Smith of Sarnia, fireman of a G. T. R. freight train, west bound, occurred at Patton's Siding, three miles west of here, at 7.15 o'clock yesterday morning, caused by the flues of the engine blowing out. The engineer made his escape by following the running board of the engine and jumping, while the front brakeman, whose name could not be learned, had his hands and face rather seriously injured. Smith either jumped or was blown from the engine. When picked up by sectionmen he was dead, and his cap burning. His head was crushed by coming in contact with a rail.

The engine was disabled by the accident and the train had to be hauled to London.

May Take Ocean Voyage.

London, April 11.—Mrs. (Hon.) C.
S. Hyman has returned from Coronado Beach, California, where she spent the winter with Mr. Hyman.

The Minister of Public Works felt well enough a month ago to undertake the journey homeward by easy stages. At Los Angeles, where he intended staying a few days en route for Canada, he was attacked by his old enemy, insomnia, and suffered such a setback that it was deemed wise to return to Coronado Beach.

Mr. Hyman is still there and his physician advises an ocean voyage.

Perhaps the most famous address ever made by President Lincoln is the one that he delivered at the dedication one that he delivered at the dedication of the soldiers' monument on the battle-field of Gettysburg, and the words most quoted from it are "the government of the people, by the people and for the people." This phrase was no doubt an unconscious quotation, for the same words were used by Theodore Derter in an address to the Anti-Parker in an address to the Anti-Slavery society May 13, 1854. Nor was the phrase original with Parker. Daniel Webster in 1830 used the words "the people's government, made for the people, made by the people and answerable to the people." And even before Webster Chief Justice Marshall had expressed the same idea in similar had expressed the same idea in similar

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, neuroligal, hysieria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for gourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Mme. Bob Walters, the famous organizer of motor-car elopements, died in Paris during the week.

She was a woman whose long series of eccentric professions was the delight of the Parisians. Born in 1855, she 15 years ago startled the gay city by the introduction of luminous dances on the stage. Next she set up business as a lion-tamer, and finally became a dealer in automobiles. It was in the last capacity that she invented the new role of elopement contractor, for which she will be long remembered.

A young lady wished to elope with her lover. She applied in a happy moment to Mme. Bob Walters at her premises at No. 83 Avenue de la Grande Armee. Madame undertook at once the management of the affair. She supplied both the automobile and the chauffeur that carried off the young lady from under the very eyes of her chaperon as she was returning from a singing lesson. The event created an immense sensation. For a week amateur detectives and chauffeurs scoured France for the missing girl. At the end of that period the lady returned with her husband; the parents absolved them and gave them their blessing, and paid Mme. Bob Walters a handsome sum over and above the figure of her account for the trouble she had taken.

This incident established her reputation, and she was called upon frequently te assist other amorous couples. One of her most famous "coupe" was the successful carrying-off of an unfortunate husband who had been wrongfully confined in a lunatic asylum by his wife. As an automobilist she was herself an expert, and in 1902 beat Thery, one of the champions of the automobile world, in the flying kilometre race at Gaillen.
