Amusement Very Popular In Chatham

Messrs. John Watt, Geo. Fielder d Joe Hadley are wearing the smile that won't come off to-day. Their second Fancy Driss Camiyal at the Tecumseh Roller Rink, Inc. night, Was even a greater success than the previous one. These gen-tlemen are deserving of all the good fortune they are meeting with, and no one has anything but words of praise for the able manner in which this popular place of amusement has been managed from the start. To this fact is due to a large extent the liberal patronage which the proprietors have enjoyed.

There must have been between 250 and 300 in costume at the rink last night. Many of the costumes were very beautiful and expensive, and a number of them were ordered for the occasion from costumers in Detroit. All who took part in the carnival deserve credit for the pains they took in making up.

Wild Cat Promoters.

Men have been known to remain in town without any visible means of support who were stoppeded of living on the sales of stolen silver. Wild-cat promoters have been known to pay as much as $100 for an extra fine sample. Certain resorts in Cobalt have long been watched, and an occasional example has been made. Frequently samples are openly sold on the streets of Cobalt, and the purchasers must be well aware they were buying stolen samples.

Monday night, however, Detective Kirkwood and McDonald, disguising themselves as workmen, made the acquaintance and got the confidence of suspected parties, and as a result three men were arrested during the night, and eight in the morning. Two of the men taken had twenty-seven pounds of leaf silver, and the third one had about one hundred pounds of rock and ore.

Four houses were raided, including a boarding-house kept by one Phillips, where ore and rock were found to the extent of about four hundred pounds hidden in sacks and boxes under a stairway.

HAYWOOD FACES JURY

Murder Commenced Yesterday

Result Of Conspiracy

Boise, June 5.—Boise turned out a crowd for the real opening of the Haywood trial. At 9.45 Hawley began without flourish.

"It is now my duty," he said, "to state the theory on which this case rests. I shall not go into details, between the company of the compa of.

After recising the crime committed at Caldwell, Hawley began dealing with the periods involved.

"Frank Statement or was the best known man in the 8 to of Idaho," said Hawley. "He had be n Governor of this state."

A. Pettibone and Harry Oreners are members of the western faction miners.

"I wish to call attention to the charge. The indiotment charges that the defendant, Haywood, exploded the bomb that killed Frank Steunenberg. But we do not expect to prove that he or his associates were present in Caldwell or that he actually threw that bomb."

Accessory Is a Principal.

The chief prosecutor explained the law of Idaho which makes an accessory a principal, and said that the law compelled the direct charge. As Hawley was reaching the substance of his case, Haywood gave strict attention to his remarks and never removed his eyes from the lawyer.

"We expect to prove," continued Hawley, "that this crime was the result of a conspiracy in the Western Federation of Miners and that the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners and that the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners, as an organization, became a fact in 1835. Prior to that time throughout the west there were various labor organizations in the mining camps. In that year these unions we reconsolidated. The head-quarters of this federation is in Denver. Ostensibly the organizations in the mining camps. In that year these unions we reconsolidated. The head-quarters of this federation is in Denver. Ostensibly the organization is governed by a convention which meets only once a year. The absolute control of the entire body is placed in the hands of a few men and the chief officers are the president and secretary-treasurer."

Witnesses Examined.

Eight witnesses were examined before adjournment.

It was a quarter after nine o'clock before the Board of Education meet ing was opened last evening. The nembers held a short caucus before hand, at which it is understood the matter of salaries was again opened for discussion. They were able to ar-Five at a conclusion which, as Dr McKeough explained at the meeting, was almost unanimous. The passing of this schedule was one of the important features of the evening. The matter was brought up at the meeting by the chairman, Dr. Mc-Keough, who explained that the Board had met as a committee of the whole, and had decided to increase the salaries of the Collegiate crease the salaries of the Collegiate chers, and the principals of the Public schools. He dwelt upon the act that pupils are educated in Chathat that pupils are educated in Chat-harm cheaper than they are in many other cities, and there are only a few towne where the average cost per pupil is less than Chatham. The following scale was moved by Mr. McCorvie, seconded by Mr. Morley, and carried:

of the Collegiate.

Mr. Richards reported that the Finance committee had met the Finance committee of the County Council in reference to the amount of maintenance for county pupils at the Collegiate would be paid by the county. He went into the matter fully, explaining to the Board how the amount was arrived at and cut. the amount was arrived at, and quoted the figures $1,461.89 as the amount ed the figures $1,401.89 as the amount which the county had agreed to pay, which he thought was very fair. The action was approved of, and Dr. McKeough took occasion to compliment Mr. Richards on his exceptionally clear and comprehensive re-pliment Mr. Richards on his exceptionally clear and comprehensive report.

A grant of $10 was made for music for the McKeough school picnic.

It was decided to increase the salaries of the janitors of the three schools. Their salaries as increased will be: Mr. Green, of the McKeough school, $50 a month; Mr.J Brown, of the Collegiate, $45 a month and a free residence: and Mr. Dunlop, of the Central, $70 a month.

The purchase of several small supplies for the schools was left with the committee.

Inspector Park's report gave the following as the totals of the attendance at the Public schools for the month of May:

McKeough school-Enrolment, 388; average, 364; percentage, 91.
